ORDER RULING ON DEFENDANTS' OBJECTIONS TO INTERROGATORIES PROPOUNDED BY PLAINTIFF AND ORDER COMPELLING ADDITIONAL ANSWERS TO SAID INTERROGATORIES

On this the 15th day of June, 1970, came on to be considered the objections of certain defendants to interrogatories propounded to the defendants by plaintiff herein, and it was noted by the Court that certain other defendants in this cause have to this date failed to answer or object to such interrogatories, and further came on to be considered the plaintiff's motion to compel answers to such interrogatories, and it appearing to the Court that the objections to the interrogatories numbered 2, 16, 20, 28, 33, 37, 41, 42, 45, 46 and 85 are valid and should be sustained and the objections to the interrogatories numbered 1, 3 through 15, 17, 18, 19, 21 through 27, 29-36, 38, 39, 40, 43, 44, and 47 through 84 are not valid and should be overruled, and the Court is further of the opinion that all of the interrogatories heretofore propounded to defendants by plaintiff and to which objections have not been sustained are proper and should be fairly and honestly answered by all of the defendants herein.

It is, therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the objections filed by each defendant to the interrogatories numbered 2, 16, 20, 28, 33, 37, 41, 42, 45, 46 and 85 be, and the same are hereby sustained and defendants are not required to submit answers thereto.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the
