laws or statutes. If no objections are filed within five (5) days after the receipt of said copy or copies, same shall be considered as having been properly proven and the Court may take judicial knowledge of same without further proof; that any attorney of record may also furnish an opinion supported by citations from a member of the Bar of another State construing the law of the foreign State in the same manner as above provided for proving statutes;

It is, therefore, ORDERED that for the purposes of the trial of the above entitled and numbered causes only, that the statutes or laws of another state may be proven by furnishing a copy of said laws or statutes, or with a copy of an opinion supported by citations from a member of the Bar of the State construing the law, and that same shall be furnished to all attorneys of record at least ten (10) days before the trial of the case in which same is desired to be used, and if no objections are filed within five (5) days after receipt of said copy or copies same shall be considered as properly proven and this Court may take judicial knowledge of same.

SIGNED this the 17th day of December, 1970.
