Johns-Manville ads. Miller
Johns-Manville ads. Radonich

Attention: Benjamin F. Stanton, Esq.

Dear Mr. Stanton:

COPY

Pursuant to our recent conversations with you with respect to the above cases, we discussed each of these cases with Mr. Mungle when we saw him in Compensation Court on October 29, 1952.

As to the Pangi case: We advised Mr. Mungle that the management of Johns-Manville felt they could do nothing for Mrs. Pangi in this case. Mr. Mungle has promised to advise us as to whether or not he intends to start suit.

As to the Miller case: We advised Mr. Mungle that the Johns-Manville Medical Department believes Mr. Miller's present lung complaints to be non-compensable in nature and that, therefore, Johns-Manville was not disposed to do anything voluntarily in this matter.

As to the Radonich case: We advised Mr. Mungle that we were still having difficulty getting Dr. West's opinion in this matter and Mr. Mungle agreed to abstain from filing a formal petition in this matter for an additional reasonable time in order for you to complete our medical research. It is essential, as you undoubtedly realize, that these tests be concluded as quickly as possible.

We have enclosed additional copies of this letter so that you may have one for each of the above files.

Very truly yours,

John W. Fritz
