Re: Albert Tome
vs. Johns-Manville Products

Dear Sirs:

This letter is to inform you that my client, Mr. Albert Tome, has suffered extensive injuries to his throat, lungs and nasal passages and has developed loss of his voice since on or about January 5, 1952, as a result of inhalation caused by [redacted] insulation which he [redacted]. It has been [redacted] and in addition to pain, suffering [redacted]

I shall be [redacted] with your representative from your Atlanta office. It is my opinion that there is [redacted] part of the manufacturer for the above injuries.

Yours very truly
