VS.

FIBREBOARD PAPER PRODUCTS CORPORATION, ET AL.

CIVIL ACTION NO. 6329.

DEFENDANT "RUBEROID COMPANY'S" MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO REPLY AND OBJECT TO PLAINTIFF'S SECOND SET OF INTERROGATORIES

COMES NOW "Ruberoid Company," one of the named Defendants in the above styled and numbered cause, and makes and files this its MOTION FOR AN EXTENSION OF TIME TO REPLY AND OBJECT TO PLAINTIFF'S SECOND SET OF INTERROGATORIES, and as grounds therefor would respectfully represent unto the Court as follows:

I.

That various objections have been filed in regard to most of the original Interrogatories inquired about in said Second Set of Interrogatories. That these objections have not been ruled upon by this Honorable Court, and under Rule 33 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, any reply to such Interrogatories is to be deferred until such ruling on such objections. That in conjunction with said Federal Rule 33, no reply to any Interrogatory which has theretofore been objected to, or any such related Interrogatory, should be made unless and until such objections have been ruled upon by the Court.

II.

Such Interrogatories obviously are subject to many objections, and this Defendant should not be required to make such objections at this time, since many of the same objections have been interposed heretofore, and the Court has not ruled upon the same. This Defendant should be allowed by this

Honorable Court a reasonable period of time from and after a ruling upon its original objections within which to object to the Second Set of Interrogatories.

WHEREFORE, premises considered, this Defendant respectfully prays this Honorable Court to grant a reasonable extension of time to this Defendant within which to answer and object to Plaintiff's Second Set of Interrogatories.

Respectfully submitted,

BARNES & BARNES
