AIR MAIL
SPECIAL DELIVERY

July 22, 1937

Mr. A. E. Rathgeb. Dust Engineer,
Johns-Manville,
Manville, N. J.

Dear Mr. Rathgeb:

Upon my return to the office this afternoon from New York, I find your letter of July 20th and note that you expect to arrive in Charleston Monday morning, July 26th.

I wish to assure you that it will give us great pleasure to have you make this visit, and our suggestion is, that if you are coming in over the Coast Line by the morning train, that you arrange to get off at the North Charleston Station.

I am forwarding this letter to you via air-mail special delivery in the hope that it will be in your hands early Friday morning. And if you will wire me that you are getting off at North Charleston, I will meet you at that point.

Very truly yours,
GENERAL ASBESTOS & RUBBER DIVISION of Raybestos-Manhattan, Inc.
