In Re: Damage Suits

Dear Mr. Simpson:-

As you have requested that I keep you posted in regard to the suits which are brought against this Division, I now beg to advise, in regard to the suit which was scheduled for trial yesterday, namely, Lewis H. McCurley, vs. Raybestos-Manhattan, Inc., our side was all prepared to go to trial, and the lawyers and certain of our witnesses were in the Court Room at the time for which the trial was scheduled. However, the Plaintiff's lawyers had numbers of excuses why they could not go to trial at this time, and, much to the surprise of our attorneys, and also myself, the Judge has continued the case until the Fall Term.

There are certain points in regard to this matter, which I do not care to put in writing, for I could not prove my statements, but I will mention these to you the next time I see you.

Therefore, in accordance with the above, there will be no further trials to come up before October or November, 1935.

Yours very truly,
