4400 FIFTH AVENUE

PITTSBURGH 13, PA.

October 14, 1947

Mr. S. Simpson, President
Raybestos-Manhattan, Inc.
Bridgeport, Conn.

Dear Mr. Simpson:

The 12th annual meeting of Members of Industrial Hygiene Foundation will be held at Mellon Institute, Pittsburgh, on November 20. This meeting is mainly for management. William B. Given, Jr., President of American Brake Shoe Company, a Foundation trustee, will deliver the keynote address, "A Better Place to Work."

Conferences for technical and professional specialists from Member companies will be held on November 19 and November 21, the day before and the day after the main meeting.

As a Foundation Member you are entitled to send management representatives to the main meeting. A copy of the preliminary program is enclosed. You are also entitled to designate one specialist for each conference. A schedule for the conferences is also enclosed.

You are cordially invited to take full advantages of both the main meeting and the conferences. Please send us the names of your representatives so that we can plan accordingly. Admission cards will then be sent together with copies of the program and the agenda for the conferences.

Very truly yours

John F. McMahon
