Bridgeport, Conn.
June 14, 1935.

The Metropolitan Insurance Company,
1 Madison Ave.,
New York City. Attention Mr. J. W. Fehnel.

Dear Mr. Fehnel:

With further reference to the survey of the Bridgeport Plant on Tuesday, June 18, I learn that our Mr. Pope will be away on that day, and I would ask that upon your arrival here that you ask for Edward Carey, who will be very glad to give you all the assistance possible.

Yours very truly,

MFJ-J. General Manager.
