Dear Mr. Simpson:

Thank you for yours of the 17th and for the attached copy of a letter from your Charleston doctor commenting upon Dr. Gardner's second progress report.

It seems to me Dr. Lynch has made a very thoughtful analysis of Dr. Gardner's report. However, it all comes down to this: We cannot draw any conclusions upon the basis of the experiments to date other than that any conclusions would be premature and, in spite of Dr. Gardner's references to the apparent trend of the results thus far developed, it is quite evident he feels the same way.

Very truly yours,

Vandiver Brown
