My dear Miss Garvey:

Mr. Rohrbach handed me the Johns-Manville Sales Corporation bill for the second quarter, which was received recently at your Division, and I am returning it with a letter, of which I enclose a copy.

Yours very truly,

Dear Sirs:

On December 22, 1941 we received the enclosed bill and it appears that you have not recorded our payment for the second quarter of 1941, and therefore, I am glad to give you below the dates on which all the 1941 payments were made:

1st Quarter paid	-	April 7, 1941	-$250.00
2nd and 3rd Quarters paid	-	Sept. 23 "	500.00
4th quarter paid	-	Dec. 22 "	250.00

The check for the first quarter payment was deposited by your Company in the New York Trust Company and marked paid by the bank, April 10, 1941. That for the second and third quarters was also deposited in the same bank and marked paid September 26, 1941.

We trust that with the above information you may adjust your records.

Yours very truly,
RAYBESTOS-MANHATTAN, INC.
