Published by AsbestosClaims.Law
asbestosclaims.law/library/24230/1

PITTSBURGH CORNING CORPORATION

1. FOAMGLAS(R) cellular glass thermal insulation.
   Start - 1941 to present
   Components - raw materials normally associated with making of glass items such as sand, limestone and soda-ash, with other trace items.
2. FOAMTHANE(R) foamed polyurethane thermal insulation
   Started - 1961 Stopped - 1971
   Components - Isocyanate and polyol.
3. UNIBESTOS(R) thermal insulation
   Started - July 1962 Stopped - Feb. 1972
   Components - Diatomaceous earth, sodium silicate and amosite asbestos fiber.
4. TEMP-MAT(R) glass fiber blanket
   Start - 1966 to present
   Components - glass fiber.

Published by AsbestosClaims.Law
asbestosclaims.law/library/24230/2

NAME:

PITTSBURGH CORNING

PRINCIPLE PLACE OF BUSINESS:

Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

CORPORATE ACQUISTIONS:

Purchased on-going business from UNARCO on July 1, 1962

PRODUCTS:

Unibestos (65% amosite, 20% diatomaceous earth, 15% sodium silicate) from July 1, 1962 to February 1, 1972. (First manufactured in 1936 by Union Asbestos & Rubber Company.)

MINED OR MILLED:

No

LOCATION OF MANUFACTURING PLANTS:

Tyler, Texas, July 1, 1962 to February 1, 1972
Port Allegany, Pennsylvania, April 1, 1964 to February 1, 1972

SOURCE OF RAW MATERIALS:

UNARCO, EGNEP Ltd. (Owned by Cape Asbestos Co., Ltd); North American Asbestos Corporation; GSA, all from 1962 to 1971.

REASON FOR DISCONTINUATION OF PRODUCTS:

Not economically or practically possible to install equipment to conform with proposed Federal Standards; suspicion of health hazards; lack of supply of raw material and lack of profitability.

FIRST KNOWLEDGE OF HAZARDS:

1965

FIRST LABELING:

November, 1968

Published by AsbestosClaims.Law
asbestosclaims.law/library/24230/3

SALES:

To Various portions of United States.
To the following distributors from 1962 to 1972:

1. A.C. & S, Los Angeles, California
2. Associated Insulation Co. of Richmond.
3. Plant Asbestos Co., Emeryville, California.
4. Thorpe Insulation Co., Los Angeles, California.

Does not deny former direct sales to Long Beach Naval Shipyards. Dennies present sales.

Admits sales to U.S. Government between 1962 and 1971.

Sales to following co-defendants (without relabeling): Johns-Manville, Owens-Corning, Combustion Engineering, UNARCO, Thorpe, Eastern Refractories, Keene Corporation.

GROSS SALES FROM ASBESTOS PRODUCTS:

1962 - $506,339	1967 - $2,522,429
1963 - $1,365,562	1968 - $3,067,446
1964 - $1,418,941	1969 - $2,716,514
1965 - $1,784,229	1970 - $2,933,457
1966 - $2,471,026	1971 - $2,989,873

RELABELING AGREEMENTS:

No

MEMBER OF ATI:

No

QPL:

Yes

Published by AsbestosClaims.Law
asbestosclaims.law/library/24230/4