Re: Loretta Anzak, etc. v. Armstrong Cork Company, et al. (including Union Carbide Corporation)

Dear Mr. Thode:

Attached hereto for further handling is the original Summons and Complaint in the above-captioned lawsuit. This lawsuit is another asbestos case filed in U. S. District Court in Miami. The complaint charges that William John Anzak, husband of the plaintiff, wrongfully died as a result of his exposure to asbestos insulation products manufactured and sold by defendants. Plaintiff claims $750,000 in general and special damages and $250,000 in exemplary damages.

Please have the Corporation's insurance carrier refer this case to Hervey Yancey, Esq. of the firm of Smathers & Thompson, 1301 Alfred I. du Pont Building, Miami, Florida 33131, telephone (305) 379-6523.

Mr. Yancey is already representing Union Carbide in several asbestos lawsuits pending in Florida.

Very truly yours,

Charles F. Raeburn
