

UNION CARBIDE CORPORATION
270 PARK AVENUE, NEW YORK, N.Y. 10017
LAW DEPARTMENT

May 2, 1975

Mr. W. J. Burdett
Insurance Department
44th Floor

Re: Harry T. McLaughlin v. Union Carbide Corporation et al.

Dear Mr. Burdett:

Please find enclosed herewith fcr further handling the Summons and Complaint we have just received with respect to the above-captioned matter.

The plaintiff in this suit seeks damages against the corporation for personal injury in the sum of $500,000 for general and special damages and $500,000 for exemplary damages, together with costs and interest on the judgment from the date thereof until paid, at the rate of 6% per annum.

Very truly yours,

Robert F. X. Fusaro

RFXF/db Enc.

cc: R. L. Doan
W. C. Thurber
V. J. Zupa/File

RECEIVED
MAY 5 1975