HSE Catalog

Enclosed is a copy of our new Catalog of Occupational/Environmental Health and Safety Programs. It lists most of the major educational and informational programs available through the Health, Safety & Environment Department.

We suggest you keep this copy for future reference. As new programs are added. you will be sent additional insert sheets for this catalog.

All the publications, audio-visual programs and other material listed in this catalog are available to J-M customers and public interest groups as well as to all J-M personnel.

This catalog was developed to inform J-M people and our customers of the wide variety of programs available through this department. We encourage a broad distribution to any person or group that might benefit from the programs and publications offered.

Additional copies of this catalog can be obtained by contacting Walt Cooper, Manager of Environmental Communications, 4N3, Extension 2969.
