Subject: 2 NEW OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH GUIDES

Attached for your information are copies of two new occupational health guides just off the presses--on Asbestos and PVC.

These booklets are designed to fill the gap in our educational program by providing a primer to educate supervisory personnel about occupational health concerns related to J-M products. Four others are planned in this series--on Fiber Glass, Polyurethane foams, diatomite and Perlite.

Distribution will be made through the Divisions, and these primers also will be used to answer inquiries from the media and general public.

Please let me know if you can suggest any additional use for them.
