WE NEVER FORGET

"My advice to workingmen is this: If you want power in this country; if you want to make yourselves felt; if you do not want your children to wait long years before they have the bread on the table they ought to have, the opportunities in life they ought to have; if you don't want to wait yourselves; write your banner so that every political trimmer can read it, 'We Never Forget!' If you launch the arrow of sarcasm at labor, we never forget; if there is a division in Congress, and you throw your vote in the wrong scale, we never forget. You may go down on your knees and say, 'I am sorry I did the act,' and we will say, 'It will avail you in Heaven, but on this side of the grave, never!' "—Wendell Phillips.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Monday, Oct. 3, 1921.

General Executive Board

held its annual between-convention session at the Savoy Hotel, Cincinnati. It was called to order by President Mullaney at 10 a. m., Monday, October 3rd. Present: Joseph A. Mullaney, Thomas J. McNamara, Edward Brinker, Charles C. Rice, Henry H. Holland, E. A. Johnson, Allen B. Ewen. Business Agent Perkins, on behalf of Local 8, Cincinnati, welcomed the delegates and invited them to the special meeting and smoker of the Local on October 4. The Board accepted the invitation.

Business Agent Perkins of Local 8 reviewed the local building trades situation and explained the wage issue awaiting decision of arbitrator.

The various communications were arranged for consideration, as per Board's procedure.

The Board discussed the local situation and certain of its phases that had to do with the National Board of Jurisdictional Awards and the Ohio State Building Trades Council.

Adjournment was taken at 12:30.

Respectfully submitted,
THOMAS J. McNAMARA,
Secretary.

MONDAY AFTERNOON SESSION, OCTOBER 3rd was called to order by Chairman Mullaney at 2 p. m. Present: Mullaney, McNamara, Brinker, Rice, Holland, Johnson, Ewen.

The Milwaukee situation was reviewed, and the request of Local 19 to have shops in which its membership was at work declared "unfair" outside Milwaukee was denied for the reason that it would be inconsistent for our affiliated locals to take sympathetic action against any shop in which card men were at work with the consent of the local that controlled the jurisdiction in which the shop was situated.

The charges preferred by Milwaukee Local 19 against Brothers John Everson, Frank Grady and Al Ring were referred to President Mullaney for investigation and decision.

The communication of Brother Goetzschel of Local 19 was referred to the President.

The protest of Local 19 in regard to the LaCrosse decision was considered and the decision unanimously affirmed.

The complaint of Local 32 of New Jersey against certain of Local 14, Philadelphia, membership, was considered and found to be lacking in positive detail and evidence. The secretary was instructed to so notify Local 32, with the additional information that the General Executive Board would support the Local in upholding international law in cases where the alleged violation was substantiated by submitted evidence.

The complaint of Local 31 of Providence vs. Local 6 of Boston was given consideration. The secretary was instructed to notify Local 31 that the International Association will give full and immediate support to it in any and all instances in which the membership of any affiliated local was proven to have violated international law.

Adjournment was declared at 5:30 p. m.

Respectfully submitted,
THOMAS J. McNAMARA,
Secretary.

A communication from Trustee Spencer, Local 14, Philadelphia, asking advice and decision as to the disposition of Local Union property, was considered. The secretary was instructed to inform Trustee Spencer that the law of Local Union autonomy gave to a regularly constituted local meeting the full power to dispose of its material properties by majority vote.

The complaint of Local 25, Detroit, vs. Local 17 of Chicago for alleged International law violation on the Buick plant operation at Flint, Mich., was heard. Business Agent Kennedy and Vice-President Thorpe of Local 17, Chicago, and Business Agent Brinker of Local 25, appeared. After taking the testimony, the Board went into executive session again and declared that "the question of using emergency laborers for mixing and distributing materials on out of town work in open territory, should be determined by the local union operating the job in accordance with the trade laws and customs practiced by said union under local autonomy."

Respectfully submitted,
THOMAS J. McNAMARA,
Secretary.

AFTERNOON SESSION, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 4th

Respectfully submitted,
THOMAS J. McNAMARA,
Secretary.

The complaint of Local 11, Baltimore, against certain of Local 14, Philadelphia, membership, for alleged strike-breaking at Sparrow's Point, was considered. The report of the secretary-treasurer was submitted. The Mare Island Navy Yard request for charter and the protest of Local 16, San Francisco, in reference to same, was referred to the president for investigation and decision.

Adjournment at 1 p. m.

Respectfully submitted,
THOMAS J. McNAMARA,
Secretary.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON SESSION, OCTOBER 6th

The Board was called to order at 2 p. m. Present: Mullaney, McNamara, Brinker, Rice, Holland, Johnson and Ewen.

The Board considered several complaints lodged by local unions against the abuse of trade law as practiced by certain of our membership at work within the jurisdiction of sister locals, and the secretary was instructed to notify all local unions to the effect that visiting, traveling or transferring members must report to the officers or regular meetings of the Local Union within whose jurisdiction they intend working.

A communication (telephone) from Business Agent Mansfield of Local 2, Pittsburg, was received, complaining that certain of the membership of Local 14 were violating the "one man" law on operations within the Local 2 jurisdiction. The secretary was instructed to notify Local 2 that proper charges, evidence, etc., must be presented before the Board can take action.

So long as the steel companies persist in the employment of "spies" and "under-cover" men to combat the labor men, all their profession of good will toward labor may be discounted 100%.

Statistics prepared by the Department of Labor for the fifteen principal cities of the United States show that for the month of from July 15th, to August 15th, there was an increase in the retail price of food in all of the cities over the previous 30 days.

For an average American dinner, built around a steak, a family now pays 60% more than in 1913, although the farmer only gets 2% more for the cattle, the packer gets 27% more and the retailer 31% more.

General President's Report

Cincinnati, October 8th, 1921.

Greetings:

The general activities of your president began last quarter when he visited Pittsburg and found Local 2 holding up its end of the general strike in the Building Trades caused by an arbitrary attempt at reduction of wages. A meeting with the strike committee, as well as special local meeting, resulted in a general understanding being reached on the question of possible future action. Then on to Philadelphia by request of the Strike Committee of Local 14. The Philadelphia situation was found to be a most desperate one, and was made so by the return to work of certain building trades. As the progress being made by our shops at Philadelphia with non-union men was apparent, together with the fact that certain other trades were contemplating return action, a meeting of Local 14 decided by an almost unanimous opinion, reached through the medium of secret ballot, to return to work, which action was officially taken (80c). Then to Baltimore, where a meeting of Local 11 instructed its Executive Board and your President to represent it in conference with employers. This conference was held, but failed to bring about a settlement. The next city visited was Boston, where a local union meeting was attended, as well as a conference held with Vice-President Johnson and Business Agent Coughlin. Then on to New Haven and a meeting of Local 33, that considered the proposed agreement for 1922, and listened to the "drive slow" talk of your President. Washington came next, where a visit to the Building Trades Department was made in connection with certain general issues. On the occasion of this visit, a meeting of Local 24 was also attended, and an evening spent in the discussion of the pending wage question, and advice on same. Then came a visit to the Metal Trades Department where, with Brother Hughes of Local 9, Portsmouth, Va., your President represented the Navy Yard Asbestos Workers at the conference held between yard committees' and international officers, which preceded the hearings of the Navy wage board. On the second day, awaiting call before the Board, your president was called to New York City for trade conference, and the data and appeal placed in the hands of Brother Hughes, who later was heard. Then to New York City and a conference as mentioned. Rochester was next in line for attendance at the New York State Federation of Labor convention, during which the conference was held with Vice-President Rice on State conditions, in addition to a meeting of Local 26, that decided not to accept a ten per cent wage reduction as requested by the employers holding a one dollar clause signed trade agreement. Then on to Baltimore, and the meeting of Local 11 that took the constitutional vote, resulting in a strike against the employers' attempt to establish the eighty cent hour—a reduction of twenty per cent. Business Agent McGann and your president succeeded in holding conference with the employers, but failed to impress them with the ninety cent plea, despite the fact that a recent trade congress at Baltimore had fixed the Asbestos Workers' wage at ninety cents. Our employers failed to "go along" with the Baltimore General Contractors Association, who at this writing are in support of Local 11, which is still on strike. Then to Washington and the meeting of Local 24 that took the official strike vote against the wage reduction of twenty per cent. At this writing, Local 24 is standing firm on strike in resisting the employers' demand. Our employers at Washington are the only employers in that city attempting wage reductions. The next stop was Pittsburg, where the Local 2 membership was found to be back at work under a ninety cent scale. At the request of Business Agent Mansfield, your President took certain actions calculated to better the local situation. The next stop was Wilkesbarré, where a meeting of Local 38 was officially notified by your President that the International Association would neither sanction nor recognize the "non-sympathetic" clause in the recently signed trade agreement. The local membership, after realizing the false position they had placed themselves and all others of our locals in, unanimously voted to abrogate the agreement and so notify the employers, which at this writing has already been done. Cleveland came next, and a conference with Business Agent Oliver. Local 3 (93 cents) is with all other building trades at Cleveland, expecting a blanket form of general trade agreement. The next stop was Milwaukee, where the Local 19 membership was found back at work with an eighty cent rate. The local meeting and employers conference were held and a further conference was arranged for in the hope of arriving at a trade agreement settlement. Then came a stop at Chicago, where Vice-President Holland and Business Agent Kennedy were met with, and discussion of the very acute situation that had arisen by reason of the "Landis decision," that among other revolutionary changes and working conditions, placed our craft wage at ninety-five cents—a reduction of thirty cents an hour. At this writing the Local 17 membership is at work, awaiting a rehearing for increased wage. Then on to Detroit and a meeting of Local 25, as also a conference with Vice-President Brinker. Buffalo was the next stop, and a conference with Vice-President Rice on certain trade issues. The Carey shop at Buffalo is running open, and at this writing is succeeding in operating a small job or two with a working force of two non-union men. Toronto was then visited where a meeting of Local 20 was advised how to proceed under existing Local trade conditions until the expiration of the general agreement in the building trade. Then to Albany and a conference with Business Agent Wickershine of Local 40, after which your President attended a meeting of the Prison's Building Commission, in company with other labor men, who urged immediate repair and new construction work to alleviate building trade and employment conditions. Then came Cincinnati, and the annual between-convention session of the General Executive Board, the minutes of which are printed in this journal. During its stay at Cincinnati, the General Executive Board attended a Local meeting of Local 8, which was followed by a smoker, at which an enjoyable evening was spent. In addition to the many courtesies extended the Board by Local 8, a theatre party was given at which another enjoyable evening was spent.

Published by AsbestosClaims.Law asbestosclaims.law/library/21345/8

Fraternally submitted,

Joseph A. Mullaney

General President.

FINANCES

The Finances of our International Association are far below the report of last year, as you will note from the yearly financial statement recently sent out. The same is due to the dullness of trade, but with increase in work it will be back to normal.

The selection of the Convention City.

PROHIBITION

We deplore the present lawless conditions throughout the country—the so-called "crime wave."

But the responsibility should be put squarely where it belongs. Prohibition created the illicit liquor traffic—the greatest crime breeder of all time.

Congress endeavors to function according to the will of a majority of our citizens. Has it done it?

What the prohibitionists promised you	AND	What you got.
(1) Empty jails and the elimination of crime.		(1) The greatest crime wave in the history of the nation.
(2) Happier homes and a general uplifting of family conditions.		(2) Every other household engaged in "home brewing" and distilling in violation of the law.
(3) A richer nation.		(3) Increased taxes and a large yearly appropriation to enforce the Volstead law.
(4) Improved labor conditions.		(4) Added friction between capital and labor. Open Shop—the American plan.
(5) Fewer cases for the courts.		(5) Courts choked with more cases than ever before in history.
(6) Better citizenship.		(6) Widespread disrespect of all laws, due to the failure and unpopularity of the Volstead law.

ST. LOUIS BUILDING CRAFTSMEN REVIVE INDUSTRY

The St. Louis building trades council has found an effective method of stimulating building operations while forestalling the anti-union shop campaign, is the belief of Maurice J. Cassidy, secretary of the council, in a description of the plan of President Gompers.

St. Louis unionists, it is stated have no illusions that the plan is a cure for building trades stagnation but it is their belief that it will partly revive this industry. Secretary Cassidy says loans at a moderate rate of interest are necessary for a complete revival.

For the present, the plan provides for an agreement between the owner of the proposed building and trade unions to be engaged in the work. Secretary Cassidy writes:

"A few months ago a prominent promoter came to this council and told us he could get money to erect two large apartment houses and a 12-story hotel, notwithstanding that every banker in this city refused to make the loan unless he would agree ot erect the jobs under the anti-union plan. The promoter asked for the co-operation of all building trades and crafts, and he promised to complete the jobs under strictly union conditions if the trades and crafts would agree that there would be no strikes or delays due to labor disputes and that under no circumstances would work be stopped or the workmen removed from the jobs.

"Officials of the council's affiliates accepted the plan and an agreement was signed which was called 'an agreement with the owners.'

"The two apartment houses are nearing completion and the work is at least 60 days ahead of the schedule," says Secretary Cassidy. "The wages saved under this plan offset all argument for reduction in pay. Under our 'agreement with the owner' plan the contractors saved more than double the amount in wages by having efficient workmen than they would have saved with the 20 per cent reduction in pay.

"Since making that agreement with the promoter we have made another to cover a large hotel building which has been started and we are about to sign one to cover an eight-story hospital building. It will not be a great while until all buildings will be erected under agreements. When these agreements are signed the owner is told who the union contractors are—we play no favorites. We give them all the names and they select the one they want from the list.

"The owner holds these general contractors responsible for the acts of the sub-contractors, and all are told the work must be done on a strictly union basis.

"The trades take care of the erection of the building; it is erected without delay. The very fact that the owner realizes on his investment at a date far in advance of when he expected to get returns is the best advertisement we can get."

CAN'T SELL LABOR PAPER

Tacoma, Wash., July 30—Judge Askren has ruled that the Tacoma Labor Advocate can not be sold near a struck bakery in this city, because the labor paper tells the story of this concern's opposition to organized bakery workers. The court holds that this is picketing. Attorneys for the unionists reminded the court of the employer's methods, which were not only on a larger scale, but many of the statements were untruthful.

COURT "ENDS" STRIKE

New York, July 30.—Striking bookbinders employed by the T. F. Tapley company at Long Island City, were surprised to learn that their 44-hour week strike is over. Supreme Court Justice Gannon made the announcement, and issued an injunction against picketing. The company made the usual claim to Justice Gannon that its plant is running at top speed. The court, thereupon, ended the strike and affirmed that picketing is unlawful.

The only difficulty with the decree is that the bookbinders reject the honorable court's discovery.

HIGH GRADE ASBESTOS IS DISCOVERED IN CANADA

Government Engineers Are Grading Deposit, Near Kamloops in British Columbia.

Kamloops, B. C., Aug. 30. — (Special.)—Information has been received of the discovering of an extensive deposit of high-grade asbestos along the main line of the Canadian Pacific Railway near here. Provincial government engineers are now engaged in examining the property, and if it grades like anything as reported by the promoters, a large industry will result. It is said to be fully equal to the finest Quebec asbestos, and that the deposit is very extensive.

WINNING 44-HOUR WEEK

Indianapolis, July 16.—The 44-hour week has been established by 335 locals, chartered by the International Typographical union, reports officers of that organization. This union has joined with other printing trade unions to enforce a 44-hour week pledge by employers in 1919, to become effective in May, 1921. The employers violated their agreement, and are backed by other anti-union influences.

DENVER LEADS IN BUILDING

Federal Reserve Report Shows City Is Prosperous.

Denver leads the 10th Federal reserve district, which includes Kansas City and Omaha, in the number of building permits issued last month.

With 453 permits issued in July, or an increase of 61 per cent over the same amount for 1920, and an estimated value of more than $740,000, the return of normalcy in the building industry seems to have struck Denver first.

RISE FROM $8 TO $9

Newark, N. J., Sept. 10.—Beginning with October 1, union carpenters of Newark, Montclair, Bloomfield and the Oranges will get an increase in wages of $1 a day, raising their wages from $8 to $9. The new scale will continue to April 1, 1922.

LABOR DAY SPEAKERS FIRE ORGANIZING GUNS

Washington, Sept. 10.—Reports of Labor Day celebrations received at the headquarters of the A. F. of L. indicate that the day was generally observed throughout the country by the workers showing an intense interest in the economic questions of the hour. In many cities immense parades were held, and in nearly all great mass meetings were addressed by men prominent in the labor movement who laid stress upon the important relations of the trade union organization to the daily affairs of the life of the workers.

At Baltimore President Gompers spoke to a tremendous crowd of workingmen and their families, business and professional men. For upward of two hours they stood before the speakers' stand in Riverview Park to hear the message to labor of the president of the A. F. of L., who delivered a keynote address in the organization movement which has been begun by the Federation. Pointing out to them that the only hope of the workers for constructive economic action lies in the trade union movement, he urged the unorganized to oragnize and the organized to federate and assist the toiling masses who are outside of the ranks of union labor to form themselves into trade and labor unions and thus to receive the full benefit of association with their fellow-workers for the advancement of the interests of labor, of the cause of justice and the welfare of the whole people. That the people are awake to the reactionary character of the present congress was shown by the cheering which greeted his call to them to protest to their uttermost against the passage of "Chinese coolie" legislation and laws taking from the people the liberties which the constitution guarantees to them. As showing the intense interest in the address of President Gompers, after he had finished speaking he was overwhelmed by the throng and held an impromptu reception lasting several minutes. After he and the committee escorting him had left the grounds groups of people stood about the park discussing his speech.

Secretary Frank Morrison spoke at Louisville, Ky., to one of the largest crowds that has ever been assembled at a Labor day celebration in that city. He, too, aroused great enthusiasm in carrying on the campaign of organization among the working people.

On the whole, Labor day of 1921 will go down in industrial history as an epoch marking a nation-wide consecration to the spirit of the trade union movement by the toilers of the country that will be reflected in future benefits to the people of the United States.

"EQUITY" SHOP UPHELD

New York, Sept. 3.—Federal Judge Mack, acting as umpire in the dispute between the Producing Managers' Association and the Actors Equity Association, has upheld the "equity" or union shop that the actors insist on.

The managers have claimed that the actors' refusal to work with non-members of their association is a violation of a basic agreement between these organizations.

The matter was referred to Judge Mack, who finds for the actors. He says the "equity" shop is "not in violation of law or of sound public policy."

The decision was received with deafening cheers at a meeting of more than 3,000 actors and actresses. John Drew, Ethel Barrymore and other well known stars lead the cheering.

The managers have made heroic efforts to smash the actors' association, and oragnized a company "union," but Umpire Mack's award will prove a blow to this policy, and peace it quite possible.

HOW COMPANY UNION WORKS

Pueblo, Col., Oct. 22.—A wage hearing conducted by the state industrial commission shows why the Nuckolls company, meat packers, favor "industrial democracy" known as the company "union."

Wages of these workers have been cust twice this year, and some of the employes are paid as low as $1.75 a day.

The commission was told that the company circulated petitions favoring another wage cut, and all but one employe signed. When asked what became of that employe, the witness replied, "O, he quit."

SYNOPSIS OF THE PLAN FOR FEDERAL LOANS

for Home Owning and Buildings as presented to the Secretary of Labor of the United States by President Gompers of the A. F. of L., at the request of the St. Louis, Mo., Building Trades Council, 2651 Locust Street, St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 2nd, 1921.

The plan suggests that the Secretary of Labor have a bill prepared and introduced in Congress so as to create a law which will authorize the Government to appropriate not less than fifty millions of dollars to be loaned in sums of not less than five hundred dollars, nor more than seven thousand dollars to persons, regardless of sex, who desire to buy or build their own home. The money to be handled by representatives of the Government and the loans to be made through the Federal Regional Banks in a manner similar to the Federal Farm Loans are made. Not more than one loan to be made to any one person, but one or more members of the same family may make loans.

The loans to be made in accordance with a schedule to be shown the borrower from which he will select his schedule of the amount to be paid to the Government each month to pay the principal, the interest and the insurance premium. The rate of interest to be not more than six per cent per annum. A person may avail themselves, by paying a larger monthly installment, or by paying the loan off before maturity, at a less rate of interest. The schedule for repayment will determine the length of time in which the borrower can repay the loan. Change in schedule of payments to be permissible at any time at the discretion of the borrower. Monthly installments to be paid when due—a fine of a small amount to be levied against the borrower if the monthly installment is not paid within thirty days after it is due.

An insurance policy to protect the Government against loss to be issued with each loan. A premium of two per cent or less to be deducted from the loan at the time it is made. This amount to be paid into an Insurance Fund with the amount due and remaining unpaid at the death of the borrower shall be paid to the Government, thus leaving the property to the heirs of the borrower, unincumbered. If a borrower pays back the loan before maturity he shall be entitled to receive the unearned Insurance premium.

If a borrower dies and leaves no heirs and his loan is not paid in full the Government is authorized to sell the house after advertising it. The cost of the advertising to be added to the original cost, or to the amount of the original loan. The Government will collect insurance in a case like this for the difference between the sale price of the property and the amount due on the loan with the advertising costs added, or the Government may arrange for the purchaser to pay the amount paid by the original borrower and assume the loan after paying the expense of advertising or other expenses incurred.

There is to be no commission charged by the Government for the loan. The borrower is to pay for all examination of papers, etc.

All money received by the Government in monthly installments shall be placed in the Loan Fund and shall be loaned as rapidly as possible.

All moneys received by the Government as premiums on insurance shall be kept in the Insurance Fund, and paid to the Loan Fund in the proper manner at the death of a borrower who has an amount of his loan unpaid. When this Fund is sufficient to protect the Loan Fund from loss the amount received in excess of the necessary protection shall be paid into the Loan Fund.

For further information write, Building Trades Council, of St. Louis. Maurice J. Cassidy, Secretary, 2651 Locust Street, St. Louis, Mo.
