REPORT OF THE GENERAL PRESIDENT

Washington, D. C., March 31, 1940.

To the Officers and Membership, Affiliated Locals.

Greetings:

The activities of your President during the past quarter began at Washington where he and Secretary Sickles represented our International Association at the dinner dance that welcomed George Meany to Washington to assume his new duties as Secretary-Treasurer of the American Federation of Labor.

Then to Miami in the interest of our craft to attend a session of the Executive Council of the Building and Construction Trades Department. During his four-day stay in Miami, your President attended a meeting of Local No. 60 and pledged its newly-elected officers. Business Agent "Ed" Smith is doing a fine job in an effort to give this new Local a toe hold in the Building Trades of Florida.

Your President went straight from Miami to the General Office.

Next came Philadelphia, where with Secretary Sickles a conference was held with Vice-President Hunter, followed by a meeting of Local No. 14.

Then to Washington where your President, learning of the death of John Coefield, President of the United Association of Journeymen Plumbers and Steam Fitters, called our General Executive Board to the General Office from which, in a body, it attended the funeral of Brother Coefield, who was buried at Rock Creek Cemetery, Washington, D. C.

Next came Syracuse, where with Secretary Sickles your President attended the regular quarterly session of the New York State Conference of Asbestos Workers.

Later with Secretary Sickles to Buffalo and a meeting of Local No. 4.

Then to the General Office. Next, at Washington, came the meeting of International labor union officials attended by your President and Secretary Sickles, which denounced the tactics of the "F. B. I." and the activities of its Mr. Arnold in his endeavors to fetter Organized Labor by having its lawful privileges as exercised for many years included in the Sherman Act from which Labor had been given to understand it was immune.

Later at the General Office came the conference between Mr. Wm. S. McLeish and Mr. Geo. P. O'Connor, representing the Ric-wiL Company, your President, Vice-President Dalton and Secretary Sickles, representing our International Association. This conference has since resulted in the signing of a Joint Trade Agreement between the Ric-wiL Company and our Local No. 84, of Akron, Ohio. This agreement will cover the insulation work known as Ric-wiL Insulated Pipe Units turned out at the factory at Barberton, Ohio.

Next, at the General Office, came the annual meeting of our General Executive Board, the minutes of which are found elsewhere in this Journal.

Published by AsbestosClaims.Law
asbestosclaims.law/library/21443/8

Columbus, Ohio, came next and the session of the Central States Conference of Asbestos Workers at which Vice-President Dalton presided.

Then to Chicago and a conference with Vice-President Mulligan in his new office which in its furnishings and decorations compares favorably with any high-class executive office.

Next to the General Office, from which this report is submitted.

As we go to press we learn that the case of the "F. B. I." against President Hutcheson of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America has been thrown out of court at St. Louis by reason of the fact that "there is nothing here to show that the defendant committed any act calculated to be in restraint of trade". This indictment was based on a "jurisdictional strike" at the Anheuser-Busch brewery plant at St. Louis.

It may be that Mr. Arnold is taking in "too much territory" in his efforts to hamstring legitimate Labor procedure.

Quarter just ending finds a sharp decline in our craft employment.

Fraternally,

Joseph A. Mullaney

President

Unions Demand Private Contractors Erect Worcester Public Buildings

The Building and Construction Trades Council of Worcester and the Worcester Central Labor Union, affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, are united in the belief that Worcester could save 25 per cent in the cost of building the proposed stadium at the High School Athletic Field, an addition to the City Hospital, and other work contemplated, the cost of which is estimated at about $400,000, if awarded to private building contractors instead of having the construction done under Works Projects Administration plans.

Organized labor here also contends that the city is not equipped with adequate machinery to carry on a large construction job and that the cost of hiring this equipment will greatly add to the expense of the proposed buildings.

This entire subject was thoroughly discussed by the delegates to the Central Labor Union when acting on a resolution opposing turning the work over to the WPA and favoring having it done by private contractors.

"We impress upon officials," the resolution said, "our absolute and complete dissatisfaction with the proposed WPA Building Program by the City of Worcester, doing this in the interest of contractors who have spent years acquiring machinery, equipment, skill and financial standing in the community, and for and in behalf of hundreds of skilled mechanics (citizens of our city) who are denied the right to work on construction such as these because some minor or other low paid member of the family is working or because of the penalty placed on thrift and saving by WPA rules and regulations, that compel him to remain idle and unemployed watching mechanics being made in an industry that is already over-populated.

Good Unionist Defined

George Meany, new secretary-treasurer of the American Federation of Labor, says: "A good trades unionist is a person who realizes that workers must be banded together in order to obtain adequate pay, decent working conditions and security, and who is willing to devote himself unstintingly in making his union a better and more effective instrument for the attainment of these objectives."

The Use of Freedom

I Am Gloriously Free—

To express myself in the labor of hand and head.

To serve my fellow men with consideration and understanding.

To add to the sum total of pleasure and comfort in the world.

To participate in wholesome pleasure with a clear conscience and a glad heart.

To share my gifts and my abilities with others without depleting my own realization of good.

To extend a word of encouragement and a helping hand to those who are in need.

To go forth under the open skies and breathe the air of God's great out-of-doors.

To seek and expect an honest return for the efforts I put forth.

To pursue common purposes with men and women of similar ideals and interests.

To accord perfect freedom to other persons as I expect them to accord it to me.

To accept the loving co-operation and the loyalty of my co-workers.

To rise above the errors of the past and prove myself superior to them.

To understand the true meaning and purpose of the freedom that is mine, that I may ever remain unhampered by outer limitations.

Dear Sir and Brother:

Just a few lines to let you know that last night Local No. 17 held "open house" in its new meeting hall, 205 West Wacker Drive, which is the modern up-to-date Engineering Building that houses among State officials, Martin P. Durkin, Director of Labor of the State of Illinois.

The spacious hall was filled to capacity with members and their families.

Judge O'Connell, a warm friend of Labor, gave the big talk of the evening. He was followed by our Chaplain, "Father Pat" Maloney. The Employers were present and made short talks. In order to make this occasion a success they gave all our membership on out-of-town work a half-day with pay to make sure of their being in town that night.

International Vice-President Mulligan gave the address of welcome and reviewed the progress of Local No. 17 in a manner that gave many of the old timers much food for thought.

Then followed the serving of lunch and refreshments and the showing of the moving picture, "The Informer," with sound effect and everything else that goes to make a first class screen production.

Then followed the dance.

On the ninth floor of the building, in suite 922, is found the three offices of Local No. 17, which include that of the Business Agent, a reception room, and the membership day room; all furnished in an up-to-date manner, particularly that of the Business Agent, with its heavy leather upholstery and hardwood desks and chairs. Should any of our general membership visit Chicago either on business or pleasure they have a standing invitation to drop in and look us over.

Fraternally yours,

Dear Sir and Brother:

Local No. 14 on February 7th held one of its most eventful meetings that has been held in a number of years.

We had the pleasure on the above date of having with us International President Mullaney and International Secretary Sickles, who had accepted an invitation to be with us.

We also had with us on this occasion members who were in our jurisdiction from 21 different Locals scattered from the widest areas.

What a treat it was to the officers and members of Local No. 14 to have with us, under our roof, the two International Officers and this large array of visiting Brothers who had the opportunity of their lives of being addressed by our Grand Old Leader and his very capable assistant. We hope their addresses made a lasting impression.

The same active spirit of Unionism was again displayed when the visiting members of the other Locals graced us with their presence at our meeting Wednesday evening, March 6th.

The Alfol job at Paulsboro, N. J., has come to a close and all our visiting Brothers are on the homeward stretch to Home Sweet Home.

Local No. 14 is sorry indeed that this job had to come to such an abrupt ending, but the past should be a better understanding for our future guidance.

Our International Vice-President Hunter and the officers of Local No. 14 wish to thank Brother Charles Rice, of Local No. 4, who was the General Foreman on the Alfol job, for the very capable cooperation he gave while in our midst.

May we be able to contact one another in the near future is the fervent desire of the entire membership of Local No. 14.

While remembering Chuck and the boys of Paulsboro give us a thought in your leisure.

Fraternally yours,
HARRY G. LEWIS,
Recording Secretary,

Dear Sir and Brother:

After the regular meeting February 9th, 1940, Local No. 26 held a party. While refreshments and a buffet lunch was in progress Business Agent Beikirch, on behalf of Local No. 26, presented the Secretary, who had recently been married, with a very appropriate and useful gift.

During the party a quartet composed of B. F. Beikirch, G. Scherbyn, W. Kujawski and J. Coolidge harmonized on some old favorites. Later J. Coolidge recited some ballads.

Dear Sir and Brother:

Let me take this occasion to tell you how much the membership of Local No. 13 appreciated your visit with us and with regret that it couldn't have been longer.

I think the impression you have left and your little talk will always remain in our minds.

May your next visit be a bit longer, and let's get better acquainted. If the saying is true "First impression is always lasting"—THEN our impressions are—you are ace high!

Mr. Lewis Wants to be Alone; He Shuns Ink-Stained Gents of Press

(The following news story is reprinted from the Miami Herald):

For 11 months each year, John L. Lewis, beetle-browed, hard-boiled president of the Congress of Industrial Organizations, battles for the downtrodden working man.

Then he relaxes.

Right now he is relaxing, and doing it magnificently, at the swanky Nautilus hotel, Miami Beach.

After rising this morning, and inspecting the very fine manicure he received yesterday immediately upon his arrival at the hotel, Mr. Lewis breakfasted about 11 a. m.

Outside, waiting to carry him to a sun-drenched beach, or whatever other spot he might select to spend the day, was a long, low-slung black limousine driven by a liveried chauffeur.

But before starting out on the day's rounds of pleasure, Mr. Lewis had business to transact with the management of the hotel. Perhaps he felt it his duty to report that certain persons—newspaper reporters and photographers, to be exact—were invading the sacrosanct precincts of the Nautilus and intruding on the privacy of the guests. Particularly the privacy of Mr. Lewis.

Now, normally, Mr. Lewis doesn't deprive the press of the pleasure of interviewing or photographing him. In fact, Mr. Lewis usually is very interviewable, and none will deny he is photogenic.

But Mr. Lewis is on vacation, and like Greta Garbo, who is also photogenic and on vacation, he wants to be alone. So, quitting his $38-a-day room he went to the office of Manager Fred Abel to complain about the violation of his privacy.

It didn't matter to Mr. Lewis that the American Newspaper Guild, the union to which thousands of reporters throughout the country belong, is a part of the C. I. O. Even one's union pals can get in one's hair at times.

Mr. Lewis registered his protest to Mr. Abel. He was, he said, paying regular hotel rates. He craved privacy. He was being annoyed by the minions. He had no intention of lending his presence and prestige to the publicizing of the Nautilus. And what was Mr. Abel going to do about it?

Gently, but firmly, Mr. Abel told Lewis that every year persons of far greater importance than the president of the C. I. O. were guests at the Nautilus hotel. Mr. Lewis' presence was not necessary to the publicizing of the hotel, and that as far as he, Mr. Abel, was concerned the ladies and gentlemen of the press were free to come and go as they will in the Nautilus. If the guests do not wish to see the ink-stained wretches of the press they do not have to, Mr. Abel informed Lewis.

Mr. Lewis wrapped himself in a mantle of silence and high dudgeon and left in his limousine after being very careful not to tell the press where he was going.

ment Insurance. Under this clause no member of Local 26 shall work for an employer who does not afford a member this protection.

Delegate McCormick, of Local No. 30, Syracuse, N. Y., reported that conditions in Syracuse are excellent at this time with all men at work although a number of the jobs such as the Housing Project and PWA Schools are being finished rapidly.

The new Power House in Oswego, N. Y., is progressing slowly and it is not expected to be ready for the Asbestos Workers for about six weeks.

Delegate McCormick stated that Local No. 30 is endeavoring to secure a new wage increase from $1.37½ per hour to $1.50 per hour for Mechanics and a proportionate increase for Improvers and the rate of board to be $2.50 per work day. Local No. 30 asked for the support of the Conference in their request for this wage increase. This was readily granted.

He also spoke on the Building Trades Councils in localities adjacent to Syracuse which required assessments from the Asbestos Workers of Local No. 30 whenever they worked in these towns. The members of Local No. 30 are considering methods of gaining a respite from these levies.

Delegate McCormick spoke regarding the pipe covering being applied at Hamilton College by a non-union workman. In behalf of Local No. 30, Syracuse, N. Y., he wished to thank International Secretary Sickles and the General Office for valuable assistance rendered in securing this work for his membership.

Delegate Fallon, of Local No. 40, Albany, N. Y., reported that conditions in Albany area are very good. All members are at work and prospects for the future are fair. There is very little work coming alone at this time and the larger jobs located in Alsen, N. Y., and Dannemora, N. Y., are rapidly being finished.

A discussion regarding finances of the Conference was held and a motion was made and seconded that each Local shall pay a quarterly Conference per capita tax of five cents ($.05) per member. This was carried.

International Secretary Sickles addressed the Conference and advised the delegates on certain phases of our craft. He also specifically asked the delegates to advise any of their members who seek work in other territories to first have their Local Union Representative write him and he will be able to direct them wherever work might be found instead of driving about aimlessly.

International President Joseph A. Mullaney gave the delegates a very instructive talk regarding Labor and its aims. He also spoke of the many laws enacted by the State of New York and the struggle that the New York State Federation of Labor had in having these laws enacted.

He specifically mentioned the Workmen's Compensation Act and the long fight that Labor had before this was finally made into law. He stated that today when you enter any of the large factory and shop buildings and you see all of the various safety devices, dispensaries, rest rooms and even recreational equipment for the benefit of employees, most people are wont to say that the industrialists and employers are very solicitous of their employees' welfare, not knowing, of course, that all of this came to pass because of Labor's everlasting fight to make conditions better for the working man.

The business of the meeting having been completed, motion was made and seconded to adjourn at 3:00 p. m.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN C. FALLON,
Secretary.

MINUTES OF MEETING OF NEW ENGLAND STATES CONFERENCE OF ASBESTOS WORKERS

Hartford, Conn., March 27, 1940.

The quarterly meeting of the New England States Conference of Asbestos Workers was held Saturday, March 9, 1940, at the Local No. 6 office, 40 Causeway Street, Boston, Mass.

Delegates present were: Edwin Olson, Oscar Nelson and Ernest Carlson, Local No. 31, Providence, R. I.; Richard Lindstrom and International Vice-President John W. Hoff, Local No. 6, Boston, Mass.; Anton Sevelius and James Dunn, Local No. 43, Springfield, Mass., and John A. Gaspic, Local No. 33, Connecticut.

International Secretary-Treasurer C. W. Sickles was also present, representing the General Office.

Meeting was called to order by President Anton Sevelius at 11 a. m.

Minutes of the previous meeting held at the Highland Hotel, Springfield, Mass., December 16, 1939, approved as read.

Communications were read and ordered placed on file.

Delegates Olson, Nelson and Carlson, Local No. 31, report business fair for the past quarter and outlook for the Spring months about the same. Did experience a spurt in business for a short period, necessitating calling in a few men from Local No. 6 to help out.

Delegates Sevelius and Dunn, Local No. 43, report all men working at the present time with 25 per cent of the membership out on "Traveler". Business is letting up somewhat but the Spring months should be fairly good with the amount of work on the books at this time.

Delegates also report that Local members are still working under the terms of the old Agreement, and a meeting date, Saturday, March 16, 1940, has been set definitely, with the Employers, for further negotiation of the new Agreement.

Delegates Lindstrom and Hoff, of Local No. 6, report that membership has been working continuously since 1928 under terms of an Agreement signed that year by the Employers but that the International form of Joint Trade Agreement will go into effect July 1, 1940.

Delegates further report that business had been quiet during the Winter with the weather holding up most of the jobs, especially the foundation work on the various Housing Projects in the vicinity. Setup looks good for the Spring and Summer, although the delegates are afraid the jobs will bunch up and break at one time rather than spread out throughout the year.

Delegates report, too, the signing of a new shop. The Industrial Insulation Co., which has just come into the local picture.

Delegate Hoff reported on attending a hearing before the Massachusetts State Labor Wage Board relative to rate of wages set on P. W. A. projects in that portion of the State which is in the jurisdiction of our Providence Local.

Delegate Gaspic, Local No. 33, reports business as good for the past quarter and had to call in members of Sister Locals to assist in the rush. Work is letting up somewhat, which necessitates the dropping of "Travelers", but all of the Local membership should work steady throughout the Spring months.

Delegate also reports the Lotz Insulation Co., of Hartford, has been straightened out, which shop had been placed on the unfair list some months back, by the Local.

Published by AsbestosClaims.Law
asbestosclaims.law/library/21443/22

Delegate further reports that two new shops have entered the field in his territory, namely, the Philip Carey Co., and the New England Insulation Co., both of Boston, Mass., which shops will maintain Branch Offices at Hartford and Waterbury, Conn., respectively. Both shops are fair and will work in cooperation with Local No. 33.

A general discussion followed on various subjects of interest to the Trade, with all delegates taking part and gaining knowledge.

Secretary-Treasurer C. W. Sickles then addressed the Conference and advised on conditions pertaining to our Craft throughout the country and the Labor movement as a whole.

Secretary Sickles spoke further on the cooperation between Locals and the General Office on the placing of idle membership with Locals that have an abundance of work.

With no further business and upon motion, the meeting adjourned at 1:45 p. m. The Conference Delegates were the luncheon guests of Local No. 6.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN A. GASPIC,
Secretary.
