REPORT OF THE
GENERAL PRESIDENT

Elmhurst, L. I., N. Y., December 31, 1941.

To the Officers and Membership, Affiliated Locals

Greetings:

The activities of your President during the last quarter began in the city of Seattle, Wash., where he represented our International Association at the Conventions of the Building and Construction Trades Department and the American Federation of Labor. The proceedings of these Conventions, which were publicized through the daily press, need no further comment at this time.

During his stay at Seattle your President attended a meeting of Local No. 7 and the regular quarterly session of the Pacific Northwest Conference. He was also the dinner guest of both the Employers' Association and Local No. 7 during the negotiations for a newly proposed Joint Trade Agreement.

Then came Tacoma and a meeting of Local No. 50.

Next to Portland, Oreg., and a meeting of Local No. 36.

The next stop was San Francisco, Calif., and a meeting of Local No. 16 followed by a meeting with a committee of the Employers' Association and the Local Executive Board.

Then came Vallejo and a meeting of Local No. 70, Mare Island Navy Yard.

Then to Los Angeles and a meeting of Local No. 5.

The next stop was Dallas and a meeting of Local No. 21 and later the guest at a luncheon given by the Local at which the Employers and local Labor Representatives were in attendance.

Then to Chicago and a conference with Vice-President Mulligan.

Next to Washington and the General Office.

Then came a visit to the New York office of the Armstrong Cork Company, at the request of Vice-President Peck, at which time your President was informed that after January 1, 1942, the Armstrong Cork Company would be the sole distributor and applicator of the Keasbey and Mattison Company's heat insulations in the cities mentioned in the circular recently forwarded all Local Unions and published in this issue. These cities are in addition to those in which the Armstrong Cork Company has been doing business. Mr. Harbaugh, the General Superintendent of Construction, was present on this occasion.

Next with Vice-President Hoff to the Johns-Manville New York office for a conference in the interest of Local No. 6-B, whose membership is now working under a new Agreement which provides for a 15-cent hourly wage increase for mechanics and proportionate increase for other classifications.

Then to Washington and work at the General Office.

The next jump was to Albany and to represent our craft at the meeting of state-wide Labor representatives who met to shape up the legislative program for 1942.

Then to Washington and the General Office and later with Secretary Sickles to a meeting of the Officers representing the National and International Organizations affiliated with the Building and Construction Trades Department. This gathering was addressed by General Somervell, in charge of all Army construction, and Admiral Moreell who stressed the necessity of Defense production, shift work with a seven-day work week if necessary. On this occasion General Somervell said, "Speaking for the Government I want to say to the crafts who find trouble in supplying labor that they should place plasterers, tile setters and other building mechanics to work in preference to cab drivers and other men from the streets who never saw the inside of a building during construction or handled tools." This meeting adjourned after adopting a resolution pledging all-out no-strike support to the Government.

Then to Syracuse and a meeting of Local No. 30 followed the next day by attendance at the New York State Conference.

Then back to Washington and a gathering of representatives of all organizations affiliated with the American Federation of Labor which pledged all-out no-strike support to the Government and which appointed a committee to meet with President Roosevelt in re: same. On this occasion Mr. James L. Houghteling, Assistant to the Secretary of the Treasury, made an appeal for Labor's full support in the purchasing of Defense Savings Stamps and Bonds.

Your President would lend his voice to the thousands you have already heard urging the continuous purchase of Defense Savings Stamps and Bonds and trust that our individual membership and Local Unions will do so to the utmost of their buying ability, as your International Association is now doing and will continue to do.

Your President concludes his report with a Happy New Year to all International, Conference and Local Union Officers as well as to the individual membership.

Fraternally,

Joseph A. Mullaney

President

RESOLUTION

adopted by the Building and Construction Trades Department

December 11, 1941

WHEREAS, many members of organizations affiliated with the Building and Construction Trades Department are now in the armed services and more will be called upon to bear arms in defense of our country, and

WHEREAS, no one is able to tell how close this conflict will come to the civilian population of this country and to what extent the institutions which we have built up after many years of sacrifice and labor will be affected, and

WHEREAS, this crisis confronts and affects every person in every walk of life in this great country of ours, therefore be it

RESOLVED, that we, of the organizations affiliated with the Building and Construction Trades Department of the American Federation of Labor, do hereby solemnly pledge that we will dedicate ourselves to do everything possible in the direction of aid in the defense of our country, and that we pledge to the Commander-in-chief our most sincere support for all-out aid in resisting the forces of those nations who have declared war against the United States of America, and be it

FURTHER RESOLVED, that each International Union affiliated with the Building and Construction Trades Department notify each of their subordinate local unions to encourage every man to exert every possible effort to assist in increasing the productive capacity of our industry, and to forego conveniences and comforts if necessary, that each individual may be guided to fit himself into that line of activity that would best serve this common purpose, and be it

FURTHER RESOLVED, that any disputes or misunderstandings that may arise on any war emergency projects shall be settled in an orderly manner under the provisions of the Stabilization Agreement for the building and construction industry without any stoppage of work, and be it FURTHER RESOLVED, that there shall be no action on our part, which would in any way interfere with the production of equipment and supplies for our armed forces or prevent the prosecution of this war to a speedy and successful conclusion.

(The following communication from President Coyne of the Building and Construction Trades Department of the American Federation of Labor accompanied the above Resolution. Editor.)

December 15, 1941.

Dear Sirs and Brothers:

Greetings!

A meeting of the General Presidents of the National and International Unions affiliated with the Building and Construction Trades Department of the American Federation of Labor was held on Thursday, December 11, 1941, in the Executive Council Chamber, American Federation of Labor Building, Washington, D. C.

Published by AsbestosClaims.Law
asbestosclaims.law/library/21450/6

General Brehon Somervell, U. S. Army, and Admiral Ben Moreell, U. S. Navy, addressed the conference outlining briefly the responsibilities of the Construction Divisions of the Army and the Navy since the declaration of war by this country on Japan, Germany and Italy.

Admiral Moreell called to the attention of the conference assembled that there were in excess of 20,000 building and construction tradesmen now employed at Midway Island, Wake Island, Guam, Hawaii, Pearl Harbor and the Philippine Islands primarily in the construction of defenses in preparation for this war. Some of these islands, it is reported, have been captured. On Midway Island and Wake Island, it is reported that the construction workers have been armed and are now fighting side by side with the Marine Corps. So the war has come close to our people in the first engagement to the extent that civilian construction workers have voluntarily, not only given of their skill, but have actually participated in combat.

The enclosed resolution, which was passed and approved by the Executive Council of the Department and the conference of General Presidents means:

(a) That there shall be no strikes for any reason whatsoever on defense construction projects;

(b) That rules and regulations with reference to practice and custom be waived when necessary to make possible the employment of men of trades who have had general construction experience, rather than to take inexperienced men in the construction field; and to suspend temporarily for the emergency the apprentice time serving regulations to permit qualified apprentices to do journeymen's work;

(c) That since it has been reported that on present projects it is desired that two or three shift employment be instituted seven days per week, that every effort should be made to supply adequate numbers of skilled workmen to fulfill the requirements of the Army, Navy, or other Government Agencies engaged in defense work;

(d) And that in order to effectuate the foregoing without exception and to faithfully adhere to the declared purpose of the Building and Construction Trades Department of the American Federation of Labor, that there shall be no disruption of production in our industry essential to the national defense, and that the right to strike shall not be resorted to, but shall be deferred and that all labor disputes shall be settled by conciliation and arbitration machinery established by the Government and the Building and Construction Trades Department.

The Stabilization Agreement referred to in the enclosed resolution may be found on pages 101-103 of the Proceedings of the Thirty-fifth Annual Convention of the Building and Construction Trades Department. A copy was also mailed you under date of August 1, 1941.

Fraternally submitted,

(Signed) JOHN P. COYNE,
President.

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY-TREASURER

Washington, D. C., December 31, 1941

To the Officers and Membership, Affiliated Locals,

Greetings:

The activities of your Secretary-Treasurer away from the General Office during the past quarter, in accordance with instructions of President Mullaney, began at a conference, accompanied by Business Agent McGann of our Local No. 11, with the Baltimore, Md., Business Agent and Vice-President Calvin of the Boilermakers' International on a question of jurisdiction affecting our Baltimore membership, which conference resulted in our membership performing the work at issue.

Then together with Vice-President Mulligan and Vice-President Hunter represented our International Association at the funeral services and interment of Secretary-Treasurer Thomas E. Burke of the United Association of Journeymen Plumbers and Steam Fitters, President Mullaney being unable to attend due to his being on the West Coast.

Next came the organizational meeting of our new Savannah, Ga., Local No. 96. Following this meeting came a conference with representatives of our Local Unions neighboring the territory of our new Savannah Local, namely: Atlanta, Ga., Columbia, S. C., Charleston, S. C., and Jacksonville, Fla., at which time your Secretary advised on numerous issues confronting these Local Unions at the moment.

Your Secretary further met with and discussed the future Trade life of our Savannah, Ga., Local Union with Mr. John W. North of the North Brothers, insulating contractors operating in this territory out of their main office in Atlanta, Ga.

Then to Baltimore, Md., where your Secretary was joined by Business Agent McGann and proceeded to York, Pa., and attendance at the regular quarterly session of the Middle Atlantic States Conference of Asbestos Workers, which conference gave due consideration to the issues of the moment, the minutes of which appear elsewhere in this Journal issue.

Next came special meeting of our Baltimore, Md., Local No. 11, called to consider terms of a new Joint Trade Agreement submitted by the Employers' Association as counterproposal to the terms originally submitted by the Local. This meeting voted unanimous approval and acceptance of the terms submitted for the new Agreement which, among other things, provided an increase in the amount of fifty cents per day for Mechanics effective January 1, 1942, and an additional fifty cents per day increase effective July 1, 1942, with proportionate increase for the Improver membership.

This meeting further instructed the officers to make arrangements for purchase of Defense Savings Bonds in such proportions as warranted by the Treasury in addition to voting substantial monetary Christmas presents to those of their membership who had previously joined the Armed Forces of our Nation.

Next came Boston, Mass., and a conference with Vice-President Hoff followed by attendance at the regular quarterly session of the New England States Conference of Asbestos Workers. The report of the delegates to this conference proved New England no exception to our craft conditions throughout the country with an over-abundance of employment for Asbestos Workers and the "Plasterers" being used as emergency Asbestos Workers to relieve the shortage.

Your Secretary, in accordance with instructions from the General Executive Board, has purchased Defense Savings Bonds in substantial amount and recommends that our Local Unions and individual membership do likewise.

Fraternally yours,

C. W. Suckles

Dear Sir and Brother:

We, the members of Local No. 5, at Los Angeles, were very elated to have had the opportunity to welcome President Joseph A. Mullaney to our city, and doubly so as we were in the midst of negotiations with the Masterfelters for our 1942 agreements.

His timely visit enabled us to complete our new agreements within two weeks by following the instructions as outlined by him in his recent chat with us.

No doubt the shops' reaction to our proposals was prompted by their personal knowledge of his sincerity and fairmindedness to all those concerned in the stability and progress of our craft.

Good luck and good health to President Mullaney, and may he long reign over the organization which he has built into what is now considered one of the finest labor units in the country.

May I extend, in behalf of Local No. 5, our very best wishes to President Mullaney and all the members over whom he presides.

Fraternally yours,
HENRY THOMPSON,
Recording Secretary.

Dear Sir and Brother:

Local No. 26 has instructed me to prefer the enclosed charges against Brothers Fred Pask, registration No. 8015, and Fred J. Pask, registration No. 8189, of Local No. 4, Buffalo, N. Y., for strike-breaking on the Corning Glass Company factory at Corning, N. Y., from which plant our membership was thrown off new work and replaced by eight non-union men.

This job cost Local No. 26 membership about $4,200 in lost wages.

We heard from the General Office that the Corning Glass Company promised to donate the amount of this wage loss to the Red Cross, but up to date they have not done so.

We hope the General Executive Board does right by us on these charges and makes an example of these strike-breakers for going on this job, which was declared unfair by Local No. 26 and published in our Journal.

We hope the penalty will be good and stiff and teach a lesson to all others who might want to act as strike-breakers in the future.

At the last meeting of Local No. 26, in December, 1941, the membership pledged themselves to buy Defense Stamps in amount equal to their dues.

We think that if every local would do this, in addition to the bonds, the members will buy otherwise, that it will be of some help to the Government in this great crisis.

The Secretary of the local will get the stamps, and when a member has enough stamps for a bond it will be turned over to him.

This will notify members of Local No. 26 who are on Travelers that the local expects them to comply with this ruling.

Fraternally,

B. F. BEIKIRCH,
Business Agent, Local No. 26.

Dear Sir and Brother:

At a special meeting of Local No. 30, Syracuse, N. Y., December 12, at the Onondaga Hotel, our International President, Mullaney, gave an impressive talk on "Patriotism" and the problems that confront the Asbestos Worker today.

In his talk he urged us to "Remember Pearl Harbor" and to always bear in mind the attack from behind made by the cowardly Japanese.

He outlined our duty as Asbestos Workers and true Americans, asking us to contribute towards American freedom through the purchase of United States Defense Bonds and Savings Stamps.

We can do this only through self-sacrifice and strong willpower.

We wish to thank you, President Mullaney, for your timely visit and excellent counsel.

We of Local No. 30 are with you 100 per cent and will do our level best to support you in this work.

Business Agent John Fallon, of Local No. 40, Albany, N. Y., also attended this meeting.

Local No. 30 granted membership to two Improvers.

All those present contributed towards a purse of $25.00 as a send-off to a real patriot, Improver Norbert Cain, of Local No. 30, who enlisted in the U. S. Air Corps.

President Mullaney commended him and informed him his name would be placed on the Honor Roll in Washington, D. C.

We wish to convey our thanks to Secretary-Treasurer C. W. Sickles for his splendid cooperation with us in all our problems.

We think you are doing an excellent job as Editor of "The Asbestos Worker."

Keep up the good work.

Fraternally yours,
W. J. MOONAN,

Dear Sir and Brother:

Local No. 43 wishes to take this means to express its appreciation for the efforts and assistance of Vice President Hoff in behalf of Local No. 43 at its recent Joint Trade Agreement negotiations and also for his assistance at our Trade Board Meetings.

As a result of his efforts and cooperation, Local No. 43 is now working under a new signed Joint Trade Agreement which provides an increase in the amount of $1.00 per day for Mechanics and proportionate increases for Improvers as also other changes in the Agreement to the advantage of Local No. 43 membership.

Vice President Hoff certainly was "Johnny On the Spot" and did a grand job for us which we all thoroughly appreciate.

Fraternally yours,
JAMES DUNN,
Secretary, Local No. 43.

Dear Sir and Brother:

It was our pleasure on October 28 and 29, 1941, to have with us our International President, Joseph A. Mullaney, but maybe a little more so this time, as we were having some difficulty handling our work on Defense projects, the General Contractors or Plumbing Contractors insisting that we furnish them labor direct. It has long been the policy of Local No. 21 to furnish labor to only recognized fair Insulation Contractors.

It was only through Brother Mullaney's efforts that we were successful in getting our work let to Masterfelters, whereby our signed International Agreement will be recognized in its entirety.

Vol. XI JANUARY, 1942 No. 18

A luncheon was arranged by us and the invited guests present were: International President Joseph A. Mullaney; E. J. Stern, Armstrong Cork Corporation; S. L. Jones, James E. Kelly, Southwest Insulation and Packing Company; H. M. Aber, Eagle Picher Sales Company; J. A. Congleton, of J. A. Congleton Insulation Company; S. J. Rainey, Mr. Garretson, Wallace Plumbing Company; Wallace C. Reilly, Business Manager of Dallas, Labor Temple; L. F. Osburn, E. P. Holley, and A. J. Essary, committee representing Local No. 21.

Brother Mullaney was in attendance at our regular meeting and gave us a good report on the conditions throughout the country, especially pertaining to our craft, ending by saying that our great worry was where we were going to get asbestos workers to take care of our work. He answered many questions and advised us on many issues.

Our membership has increased considerably since Brother Mullaney's last visit. It was the first opportunity several of our members had had to meet him, but we all feel that we are blessed to have someone like him to represent us, and will be looking forward to his return.

Dear Sir and Brother:

At our meeting of November 25, 1941, our Local Union voted to entertain its members, wives, and sweethearts with a dinner dance on December 15, 1941, at the Alamo Room, Fort Worth, Texas.

There were in attendance 150, and all seemed to thoroughly enjoy the dinner and dance that followed.

Our membership having increased considerably during the year, there were instances where the members did not even recognize their own Brothers, but before the evening was over all were well acquainted with each other, and at the closing hour all had expressed themselves as desiring that we arrange a similar affair in the near future.

The Entertainment Committee and Toastmaster, Brother Osburn, are to be congratulated for the arrangements and manner in which this affair was carried through in grand success.

We are enclosing you a picture of our dinner, which we would like, if space permits, to be published in our next Journal issue.

Entertainment Committee,
L. F. OSBURN,
R. N. HOLT,
C. L. ARNOLD,
A. J. ESSARY.

Local No. 6 submitted request to the Division of Occupational Hygiene, Department of Labor and Industries, The Commonwealth of Massachusetts, for an investigation of the physical hazards in connection with application of glass insulation.

I am attaching hereto copy of the report rendered by this Department after its investigation which resulted in Local No. 6 placing a wage premium on the application of glass insulation in the amount of 35 cents hourly as also the use of goggles, respirators, cloth and rubber gloves.

Am mailing the General Office a copy of this report if for no other reason than to justify the action of Local No. 6, under Local autonomy, in placing this hourly premium on glass insulation.

Fraternally yours,

JOHN W. HOFF,
Business Agent, Local No. 6.

REPORT OF DIVISION OF OCCUPATIONAL HYGIENE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRIES THE COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

December 1, 1941.

With regard to the matter of Fiberglas hazards referred by you to this office on October 17, we have the following to report:

1. No evidence has been found of any danger of serious or progressive lung disease, such as the fibrosis, known as silicosis, caused by exposure to free silica dust.
   a. Qualifying the above, it may be said that, like any nuisance dust, the fine particles or dust from Fiberglas heat insulating materials may under some circumstances cause discomfort to the nose, mouth and eyes, and perhaps some degree of local irritation.

2. No evidence has been found of any danger of important or disabling skin disease, as caused by many industrial substances. There appear, however, to be three skin conditions which may be caused by this material, as follows:
   a. Scratching of the skin surface by small particles of glass, called "slugs", which are dispersed throughout the glass wool. It has thus far been impossible to eliminate these particles, which may run to one-half inch in length and are often very sharp. Any such scratching may, of course, lead to infection.
   b. Mechanical irritation of the skin by particles of the glass wool itself, which may produce a pricking or itching sensation involving considerable discomfort.
   c. In rare cases, an apparently allergic reddening of the skin, perhaps in response to the lubricant found necessary to reduce disintegration of the glass wool in handling.

3. The following preventive measures may be recommended:
   a. Handling the material with as light touch as possible.
   b. Pliable and impervious gloves for the hands, preferably of leather.
   c. Impervious coverings for the forearms, preferably of Pliofilm or similar material.
   d. Simple respirators and goggles may be worn where special circumstances warrant, as in overhead work.
   e. Personal cleanliness is important. Exposed parts of the body should be scrubbed with a soft brush and soap, preferably one containing one of the numerous chemical wetting agents available on the market.

The above opinions and recommendations are based upon observations at two plants where Fiberglas heat insulating materials are handled, as already reported to you, and on conferences with the following persons:

(The above report, which speaks for itself as to the effect of glass particles as affecting the eyes, nose and throat, in addition to its reference to skin irritations, possible infection and chemical wetting agent body wash, more than justifies the position taken on glass insulation by our affiliated Local Unions. MINUTES OF MEETING OF NEW YORK STATE CONFERENCE OF ASBESTOS WORKERS

Syracuse, N. Y., December 13, 1941.

Mr. C. W. Sickles, Secretary,
International Association of Heat and Frost
Insulators and Asbestos Workers,
211 Machinists Building,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir and Brother:

The regular quarterly meeting of the New York State Conference of Asbestos Workers was held in the Onondaga Hotel, Syracuse, N. Y., December 13, 1941.

The meeting was called to order at 10 A. M. by the President, Charles C. Rice, and the following delegates responded to the roll call: Charles C. Rice, Local No. 4, Buffalo, N. Y.; George Rider, Local No. 12, New York, N. Y.; P. O'Connor, No. 12, New York, N. Y.; B. F. Beikirch, Local No. 26, Rochester, N. Y.; George S. Sherbyn, Local No. 26, Rochester, N. Y.; P. J. McCormick, Local No 30, Syracuse, N. Y.; William Moonan, Local No. 30, Syracuse, N. Y.; J. C. Fallon, Local No. 40, Albany, N. Y., and Frank Brown, Local No. 91, White Plains, N. Y. International President Joseph A. Mullaney was also present.

All bills were read and, upon motion, ordered paid.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and ordered approved.

Delegate Rice of Local No. 4, Buffalo, N. Y., reported that conditions are excellent in the Buffalo area. There is considerable work at the present time, possibly enough to keep everyone working until spring, although the possible shortage of materials may disrupt work somewhat.

Delegate Rice further stated that he has had some labor trouble with the U. S. Heat & Frost Insulating Company, and it became necessary to remove his men from this shop. Delegate Rice is hopeful that this difficulty may be adjusted satisfactorily.

Delegate O'Connor, of Local No. 12, New York City, stated that there are two hundred (200) men at work in other localities outside of the city and that private work is slowing up, due to a shortage of materials.

At the present time there is a fair amount of boat work coming along, including twelve destroyers and three aircraft carriers.

Delegate O'Connor stated that he has an order for forty (40) men, and if there are any men available in the State they can secure work in New

Published by AsbestosClaims.Law
asbestosclaims.law/library/21450/25

York City. The men are needed for boat work, and there is no overtime work at present.

Delegate O'Connor extended the Season's Greetings to all Locals and thanked the State Conference for past favors.

Delegate Beikirch, of Local No. 26, Rochester, N. Y., stated that there is a fair amount of work in Rochester, with about 70 per cent of the men employed and the remainder of the Local working in other localities throughout the country.

Delegate Beikirch stated that the Corning Glass Works has again come into the limelight after all the publicity and notoriety it received early this year when Local No. 26 sustained a $4,200 wage loss by having the Corning Glass Company do its insulation on new pipe installed in its plant with non-union pipe coverers.

After all Locals had been advised that the Corning Glass Company had been declared unfair by Local No. 26, two men from Local No. 4, of Buffalo, N. Y., Fred Pask, registration No. 8015, and Fred J. Pask, registration No. 8189, entered this plant and did considerable insulation work. Therefore, Local No. 26 is considering what action should be taken against these two strikebreakers.

A motion was regularly made and seconded that the State Conference continue to support Local No. 26, Rochester, N. Y., in its controversy with the Corning Glass Company, of Corning, N. Y.

Delegate McCormick, of Local No. 30, Syracuse, N. Y., stated that conditions are very good in Syracuse, with about 85 per cent of its membership at work in the Syracuse area and the remainder working in other localities within the State. There is considerable work to come along soon, including a huge job for the Aluminum Company, Massena, N. Y., a new air base in Syracuse, N. Y., and it may possibly be spring before the new air base in Rome, N. Y., is ready for pipe covering.

Delegate McCormick stated that there is a noticeable slowing up of work, which may be attributed to a shortage of materials rather than a lack of work.

Delegate Fallon, of Local No. 40, Albany, N. Y., reported that conditions are excellent with all men at work and a considerable number of men in from other localities throughout the state. He also stated that Albany will be busy throughout the winter and well into the spring.

Delegate Brown of Local No. 91, White Plains, N. Y. stated that conditions are very poor and most of the men are working in other localities throughout the country. He wished to thank Local No. 40, of Albany, N. Y., and Local No. 12, of New York City, for past favors.

International President Joseph A. Mullaney addressed the Conference and urged all Locals to request their members to purchase all the Defense Bonds and Stamps that they can buy.

The business of the Conference having been completed, motion was made to adjourn at 3 P. M.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN C. FALLON,
Secretary.

MINUTES OF MEETING OF CALIFORNIA STATE CONFERENCE OF ASBESTOS WORKERS

San Francisco, Calif., December 29, 1941.

Meeting called to order at Hotel Clark, October 26, by Vice Chairman Don MacIntosh, in the absence of Chairman W. R. Michener, at 11 A. M.

Published by AsbestosClaims.Law
asbestosclaims.law/library/21450/26

Affiliated Locals were represented by the following delegates: Local No. 16, Don MacIntosh, L. M. Russell; Local No. 5, Norman Fulco; Local No. 23, William Belyea; Local No. 70, Oran F. Lieb.

Minutes of the meeting held April 20, 1941, were read and approved.

Financial report read and, upon motion, accepted.

Bills for preceding quarter were read and, upon motion, ordered paid.

Under "new business" there was a lengthy discussion on the shortage of mechanics throughout all Conference Locals. In view of the ever-increasing work load at all California Shipbuilding Yards and on other Defense jobs, all mechanics desiring work in California can be assured of steady work, so state delegates from Local No. 5 and Local No. 16.

Local No. 16 reports, through Delegates L. M. Russell and Don MacIntosh, that prospects are the brightest in Local No. 16's history. It was reported that there are contracts already let for between 300 and 400 ships in the San Francisco Bay area yards. They have in progress at the present time eight low-cost housing projects. It was stated that building trades work would certainly be hampered by the Priorities Board. Many additional mechanics will be needed to complete work on jobs already started and those to come. Local No. 16 has negotiated, through their Trade Board, for the payment of a $2 a day premium on non-defense jobs for the working of glass insulation. Shops are also required to furnish respirators, gloves and goggles to men so employed.

It was reported by Don MacIntosh that final arrangements have been made between Local No. 16 and Local No. 23 for the annexation of the latter by Local No. 16 as of January 1, 1942. Delegates from both Locals involved assured the Conference that the pending action would work out to the betterment of all concerned.

Delegate William Belyea, of Local No. 23, states his Local is entirely in accord with the pending merger with Local No. 16.

At the present time there is a lot of work in Local No. 23's territory and all men are working.

Delegate Belyea reported that the Power House at McClellen Field is the largest job they ever had. He stated that there are 17 miles of trench piping alone to insulate in connection with this job.

Delegate Norman Fulco, of Local No. 5, reports that work is excellent, with all men working and many card Plasterers working. The California Shipyard has five boats in different stages of completion, with over 100 more to build.

Local No. 5 is negotiating their new agreement, which calls for $1.50 per hour and an eight-hour day. Improvers will receive, first year, $0.80; second year, $0.90; third year, $1.00, and fourth year, $1.25.

On marine work there will be a $0.125 (12½c) premium per hour additional for all classifications.

Delegate Oran F. Lieb, of Local No. 70, reports that work at Mare Island Navy Yard is progressing rapidly. Many new men have been called to work. The Navy Yard is on a full six-day schedule, with some mechanics working seven days occasionally to complete urgent work.

The Conference members entered into a discussion of the next meeting place. The decision, Los Angeles, Calif., early in 1942.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned at 4:30 P. M.

Respectfully submitted,

ORAN F. LIEB,
Secretary.
