REPORT OF THE GENERAL PRESIDENT

Washington, D. C., April 2, 1943.

To the Officers and Membership, Affiliated Locals

Greetings:

The activities of your President during the past quarter began at Washington and work at the General Office.

Then to Chicago and a conference with Vice President Mulligan.

Next to St. Louis, a conference with Organizer Schmitter and a meeting with the officers of Local No. 1, at which time your President advised upon pending craft issues.

Then to Washington and a meeting of National Labor Officials called by Secretary Meany, of the American Federation of Labor, for the purpose of cooperating with the Government on the question of manpower.

Later at Washington came a meeting between Mr. G. S. Mann, Construction Superintendent, Armstrong Cork Company, and Mr. E. E. Tanguy, District Manager, Baltimore office of the same company, your President and Secretary Sickles, at which time matters of mutual interest were discussed.

In passing it might be noted that the Armstrong Cork Company is now doing business with 53 of our Local Unions.

Next came a visit to the Building and Construction Trades Department, where your President and Secretary Sickles had the Department take action in the interest of certain of our affiliated Locals.

Then to Newark, where your President attended the session of the Middle Atlantic States Conference.

Next came the annual meeting of the General Executive Board, the minutes of which appear elsewhere in this Journal issue.

The next jump was to Syracuse and the regular quarterly session of the New York State Conference.

Then, with Secretary Sickles, came a visit to Richmond, where a conference was held with Business Agent Brooks and later attendance at a meeting of Local No. 88.

Then to Norfolk in company with Secretary Sickles and Business Agent Brooks, of Local No. 88, where a meeting of Local No. 9 was held, at which time your President, after a 90-day notice, put into execution the International plan by which the men employed in the Navy Yard were to retain the charter of Local No. 9 and those members of Local No. 9 working outside the Navy Yard as also the members composing former Local No. 52, now disbanded, were merged in the newly issued charter No. 83.

The next jump was to Jacksonville and, together with Secretary Sickles, attendance at a session of the Southeast States Conference, where many asbestosclaims.law/library/21455/7

craft issues were considered and advised upon by your President. Vice President Hullinghorst was also in attendance.

Later, at Jacksonville, came a meeting of Local No. 13, presided over by your President, at which time a special election for the office of Business Agent was held as the result of a previous election held unconstitutional by the General Office.

At Jacksonville meetings were held on craft issues with Mr. Leon T. Choate, of Mundet Cork Corporation; Mr. Leo Kelly, of the Armstrong Cork Company; Mr. Balentine, of The Brooks-Fisher Insulating Company, and Mr. E. L. Holtsford, of the Badham Insulation Company.

The next jump was to Savannah, where our employers, as also your President, Secretary Sickles and Vice President Hullinghorst, were guests at a luncheon tendered by Local No. 96 at the Savannah Hotel. Then came a meeting of Local No. 96.

Then back to Jacksonville and the finishing touches on work pertaining to our previous meeting with the employers there.

Later to Washington and work at the General Office.

Next, with Secretary Sickles and Vice President Hoff, came a meeting with Madam Perkins, Secretary of Labor, together with representatives of Massachusetts building crafts, who had grievances to present. On this occasion your General Officers confined themselves to a incorrectly predetermined wage for a job in Boston proper, as well as to the subject of "source of supply," which meant supplying of men by Local No. 6 for all work in its chartered territory.

The following day came a meeting between Assistant Secretary of Labor Daniel Tracy, your President, Secretary Sickles and Vice President Hoff, which discussed the question of incorrectly predetermined rate by the Solicitor's Office affecting many jobs throughout the country.

At these meetings both Secretary Perkins and Assistant Secretary Tracy agreed with your General Officers that the "source of supply" should be considered in the predetermining of wage rates, which means the nearest Local to the job in question.

Your President would call the attention of our membership to the increasing benefits derived from our various States Conferences. They serve as clearing houses for information as to all jobs wherever situated within the scope of the Conference confines and, as their meeting date is Saturday, it makes possible week-end trips of your President and Secretary, the former to advise on craft matters and the latter to clear up many questions between the Locals and the General Office that otherwise would drag out through long-drawn series of communications.

Your President would also record the fact that he has noticed that the roll call of Conference delegates has revealed some "absenteeism," which is hard to explain in these days of high water mark in Local finances.

Work and more work is in the offing.

Fraternally,

Joseph A. Mullaney

President

MR. CAPTAIN EDWARD RICKENBACKER

Former professional auto racer and World War No. 1 ace flyer, is now being played up by the press as an Horatio Alger, story-book hero, as the result of his disappearance from a long-overdue airship, believed lost, and his subsequent rescue from a raft with seven others, all of whom miraculously escaped death after being adrift 21 days on the South Pacific Ocean. Eight good men and true, each and every one of them—God bless them.

Their story, so well known, is so fresh in the memory of us all that it needs no repeating.

We all know it, but what most of us do not know is the fact that among the other seven who shared the hardships with "Eddie" were Captain William T. Cherry, a member of the A. F. of L. Airline Pilots' Association; Lieutenant James C. Whittaker, a member of the Wood, Wire and Metal Lathers' International Union and former Business Agent of the San Mateo Local, and Corporal John Bartek, a member of the Textile Workers.

These union men remained on the raft and gave preference of medical attention to "Eddie," who was strapped on a plane and flown to a hospital, where they also later received treatment. What about the present-day activities of "Eddie" and his raft companions? The union men are back in Uncle Sam's uniform fighting for two things. First, their country, and, second, one of the "rights" our democracy guarantees them, included among which are free press, free assemblage, free speech, free religious worship and the right to be a member of a Trade Union and work in a Union (signed agreement) shop. These union men are now forgotten by the general public, the great majority of whom could not even recall one of their names.

How about "Eddie?" He is the president of an airline company which, it must be assumed, is paying his expenses traveling through the country appearing on platforms, in pulpits and before legislative bodies, both National and State.

He does not talk anything about airlines, nor does he waste much time appealing to our youths, or our young women, to augment our fighting forces by joining any of its several branches. Not "Eddie."

"Eddie" has one pet subject, and one only, and that is his attack on the union (signed agreement) shop and his advocacy of the "piece work" system as both an expedient for war work and the displacement of manpower.

"Eddie" brands the union shop as "un-American." If that is so, there are thousands of employers and millions of workers classified as "un-American." Let us prove this to "Eddie." The population of our country is approximately one hundred and thirty million, allowing for the superannuated class of ten million males over 65 years of age and ten million females over 65 years of age, which, when added to thirty million school children and college students, and making allowance for the infirm, the physically and the permanently disabled and the mental defectives, together with twenty-five million housewives exclusively engaged as such and there are normally fifty-five million working men and women eligible to be classified as subject to everyday working, gainful employment. When we divide this total by the number of organized workers in our country, which, from all sources approximate eleven million, we find twenty per cent of our working population "un-American" according to "Eddie."

It is indeed remarkable how our country manages to keep on an even keel, much less wage a successful war with such a vast number engaged in "un-American" activities such as being members of Labor Unions and believing in the union (signed agreement) shop.

"Eddie" seemingly knows little or nothing about the good old days a half century ago when the "patriotic red-

Published by AsbestosClaims.Law
asbestosclaims.law/library/21455/9

blooded American citizen was free to exercise his God-given rights" and sell his labor to the highest bidder "without being dictated to by a Labor Union." Those were the days when these patriotic citizens worked for the daily wage offered them or starved as their employers were organized and they were not.

It is very evident that "Eddie" is a crusader who is not intimately acquainted with his mission. Especially its consequences.

As to his "piece work" plan, designed to bring Utopia to industry, freeing five million workers for the manpower program through the "speed-up" system, one has to reflect but momentarily to visualize the possibilities of faulty cartridges, imperfect bullets, defective implements of war and slipshod ship plate riveting or welding, particularly below the water line. The possibilities resulting from workmen being paid under the "piece work" system with human nature being what it is and the "speed boys" worshiping at the shrine of the dollar instead of efficiency, leaves but little doubt as to the failure of "Eddie's" arguments influencing anyone possessing ordinary intelligence.

Before "Eddie" took his place in the ranks of the living, over a half century ago, the writer worked under the "piece work" system. He applied asbestos paper as a first layer on steam pipes, followed by a layer of one-inch standard hair felt closely wrapped. Then came a layer of rosin-sized paper, over which canvas was sewed, all for the princely sum of 3 cents per running foot up to and including three-inch pipe, and that, mind you, included fittings. He also applied asbestos cement in three coats to boiler surfaces, mixing his own material and building his own scaffolding, for the flat sum of 5 cents per square foot. This included tugboat work with cement mixed on the dock and carried aboard to the boiler rooms.

This "piece work" system translated into money meant that those employed on easy-to-get-at, straight-away pipes where scaffolding was unnecessary, staggered home weekly under the weight of a pay envelope that averaged $2 per day, while those employed on work requiring scaffolds or on pipes close to the walls or nests of small pipes and fittings in almost inaccessible corners, drew down considerably less money, and in cases known to the writer exactly 85 cents for a 10-hour day, the hours which then governed our craft.

The writer wonders if "Eddie" is old enough to remember how the "jerry builder" derived his name, or if he ever read or heard of the bulging and buckling walls and collapsing buildings that caused it when the bricklayer worked under the "so many bricks a day" system.

But, back to "Eddie" again—it's a safe bet that he isn't working "piece work" rates for the airline company which lists him as President, nor is he worrying about the union or non-union shop insofar as his living is concerned. But how about the union men he left on the raft who are now on the firing line and fighting to retain and hope to return to the working standards they left if they are lucky and escape death and burial on foreign soil. Wonder what they think when a newspaper happens to reach them giving details of how "Eddie" is branding them as "un-American" while he tours the highways and byways doing his best to tear down their standards at home.

Well, after everything is said and done this is a great democracy in which everyone has a right to voice their opinion the same as "Eddie" and the writer, whose views on "un-Americanism" and "piece work" are in diametric opposition.

Come to think of it, there was another great flyer sometime ago touring the country in hero manner as "Eddie" is doing now. His pet subject was that "Americanism" meant isolation. Do you remember that fellow? The one that Hitler pinned the medal on. Come to think of it, his name

Craft Notes

Local No. 4, Buffalo, N. Y., has declared the Laco Roofing and Asbestos Company of Jamestown, N. Y., UNFAIR for repudiating its signed Joint Trade Agreement. All Locals take note.

The Corning Glass Company, an entity of the Owens-Corning Fiberglas Corporation, has to date failed to donate to the Red Cross the $2,500.00 offered as a full settlement by Local No. 26, Rochester, N. Y., as a compromise for its wage loss of $4,200.00 incurred when the Corning Glass Company displaced members of Local No. 26 with non-union men led by Norman G. Peterson, one of its ex-members with resident card in Elmira.

Believe it or not two of our Locals have seemingly never heard of or understand just what the Building and Construction Trades Department Stabilization Agreement with our Government entered into July 1, 1942, really means. These Locals would like an increase in wages. The Stabilization Agreement freezes our wages "for the duration". This also freezes subsistence or "board" allowance which must remain in amount as it was July 1, 1942.

Do not start working on any job unless you are positive you will receive the wage rate, transportation or board that the operation calls for under the terms of your Joint Trade Agreement. Do not permit any general contractor, employer, Business Agent, decision of any Local Union or of any representative of the Government to influence you to start work "under protest" while awaiting decision supposed to correct a predetermined wage lower than that specified in your Joint Trade Agreement "as in effect July 1, 1942," or the granting of transportation or board allowance. In all instances follow the old motto "be sure you are right and then go ahead."

Brother Thomas Doyle and Wife

The war news, now coming from the four corners of the world, brings to light the services rendered by one of our Asbestos Workers, stationed in Algeria. Ernie Pyle, famous news correspondent, recuperating from an attack of African flu, wrote as follows:

I must tell you about a young man who brought my meals—a red-headed, nice-looking fellow perpetually ready to break out into a grin.

He is Pvt. Thomas Doyle, of Lakewood, Ohio. He goes either by Tom or Red, so I called him Red to remind me of the days when I had hair and it was red.

On the second meal Red came beaming in behind his tray and said, "I know you now. I thought at noon I ought to know your face and I've been thinking ever since and finally I've got it. We read your column all the time at home in Cleveland."

From then on Red would bring my meals and then sit down and light a cigaret and hold conversation throughout the time I was eating. Red used to be an asbestos worker. "What on earth is an asbestos worker?" I asked. "We put asbestos around pipes," he said.

Red belongs to a union—Local No. 3 of the International Association of Heat and Frost Insulators and Asbestos Workers. He laughs at the name, as he does at nearly everything else. But he sure likes his union.

Every year they give away Christmas turkeys to the members. This year they obviously couldn't ship turkeys all over the world, so they sent a money order for $10 to each member serving overseas. "Wonder what Westbrook Pegler would think of that?" Red grins.

Red got his $10 just a few days before Christmas. He's trying to find something especially Algerian to buy and send home to his wife.

Yes, he got married a couple of months before going into the Army, even though he's just a kid. His wife is a secretary at Thompson Aircraft. He married a school-days sweetheart. "I didn't make any mistake, either," he says. "I'm sure glad I did it."

Like the other boys, Red doesn't mind the Army. At first he was an infantryman, and then in England they made a fireman out of him, on the grounds that he was so asbestos-like, I suppose. And then when he got to Africa they converted him into a waiter on tables.

Red's colonel is a pretty tough egg, not much given to compliments. But on the third day of Red's dining room career the colonel came over and complimented him on his prowess.

"That was pretty nice," Red says, "but I had to laugh at getting complimented on being a waiter when I don't want to be a waiter. Oh, it's all right, but I'm going to try to get transferred, because I'd hate to have to say I fought the whole war as a waiter."

One of the saddest parts about getting well was the end of the nice mealtime conversations with Red Doyle, the Asbestos Kid. But I've still got some more of the Army to tell you about tomorrow.

Dorothy Thompson Hits Anti-Union Campaign of Captain Rickenbacker

Washington, D. C. — Dorothy Thompson, noted newspaper columnist and recognized expert on the techniques of Fascism, courageously denounced Captain "Eddie" Rickenbacker as a spokesman for those "who are seeking to take advantage of this war to crush American Labor Unions." In a syndicated column, Miss Thompson wrote:

"Although he denies it in words, he attacks the very basis of Organized Labor; those laws which seek to bring some order and stability to the rights of workers, organized or unorganized; and the whole structure which makes labor organization possible.

"And for all the faults in our war production, he blames the workers, and blames them exclusively.

"While our men are fighting in Africa and the Pacific, Captain Rickenbacker is organizing their lives for them on their return. He is planning that they shall be used to break the Trade Union system.

"The men in the hell holes doing the fighting are not largely corporation executives. They are mostly the sons of American workers.

"Certainly, when the soldier comes back to the nation, which he has risked his life to protect, he will demand a share in the wealth of that nation. And he certainly won't get it if he is aligned against the workers who were kept at home."—The Washington Star.

Editor, The Asbestos Worker,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir and Brother:

Kindly publish in the Journal that the Laco Roofing and Asbestos Company, of Jamestown, N. Y., has been declared unfair by Local No. 4, Buffalo, N. Y.

This company had an agreement for the past four years with Local No. 4. They were employing non-union men at ridiculously low wages and worked them not only in our territory but in the Pennsylvania territory of Local No. 35, Youngstown, Ohio.

We had President Mullaney come to our city last October and confer with Mr. Larson of the Laco Company, at which time Mr. Larson asked for time to reply to the charges we presented and later, after offering excuses for not doing so, he prolonged our differences until February when, over his signature, he abrogated his signed agreement and is now operating a non-union shop.

In the face of these facts Local No. 4 had no alternative but to declare the Laco shop unfair.

Laco Roofing and Asbestos Company has a few jobs in the oil fields of Pennsylvania, including one at Emlenton (Quaker State Oil Refinery, sublet from Foster-Wheeler Corporation) and one at Petrolia.

Any sister Local called on to man jobs for the Laco Company will keep in mind that it is on the unfair list and as such cannot employ members of our International Association.

Fraternally yours,

JACK FARRELL,
Business Agent.

Chicago, Ill.,

Editor, The Asbestos Worker,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:

Our Company recently completed several Defense Plant contracts throughout the country, and the writer would like to extend his thanks through the medium of the Journal to the following members of your International Union of Asbestos Workers.

The locations of the above projects were the Elwood Ordnance Plant, Joliet, Ill.; the Kansas Ordnance Plant, Parsons, Kans.; the Technical Training Command Radio School, Madison, Wis., and the Lake Ontario Ordnance Works, Lewiston, N. Y.

All this work was under the general supervision of your International Vice President, Hugh Mulligan, and our Chicago Superintendent worked under the immediate guidance of Business Agents George Majors, of Tulsa; Henry Hug, of Milwaukee, and Jack Farrell, of Buffalo.

These men, together with the various stewards they appointed from their own Locals, were outstanding in their cooperation with our Superintendent. They were at all times aware of the seemingly impossible records we were expected to make by the War Department, and it was undoubtedly through their efforts that we were able to keep up with the unusual construction program set up on these projects.

We employers in Chicago have been extremely fortunate in having harmonious and cooperative experiences with Local No. 17, under Hugh Mulligan's able leadership, and it was a pleasant revelation to find the business agents of the various Locals in our trade throughout the country ready to avail their advice to a visiting contractor.

In closing, wish to thank you for sending the Journal to us, and to wish your members continued success in their part to insure the inevitable victory for our country.

Very truly yours,

PAUL J. KREZ COMPANY,

Leonard Krez,
Vice President.

New Orleans, La.,

Mr. A. L. Hullinghorst,
International Supervisor,
Local No. 55,

New Orleans, La.

Dear Mr. Hullinghorst:

The writer has just returned from a trip to Chickasaw, Ala., and thought you would be interested in knowing that on our contract at the plant of the Gulf Shipbuilding Corporation and minesweepers, the officials of the U. S. Navy gave our organization unusual praise and commendation upon the caliber of the finished work turned out. They stated that it was indeed refreshing to inspect a job finished in a first-class workmanlike manner and to witness the enthusiasm and pride on the part of the insulators and superintendents in charge of insulation with respect to the jobs they are performing.

We know that this compliment will be pleasant news to you in view of the time and effort you were kind enough to put forth in our behalf to make sure the finished work would be up to your usual high standards.

Please accept our sincere thanks and appreciation for the splendid, intelligent help and cooperation you have always given us on all of our contracts. Needless to say, it will always be a pleasure to sit down and discuss with you, as we have done, our mutual problems.

Very best regards.

Yours very truly,

Dear Sir and Brother:

We were greatly honored with the visit of President Mullaney, Secretary-Treasurer Sickles and Vice President Hullinghorst, at the Southeast States Conference that was held in Jacksonville, for the first time, March 27, 1943.

We hope the Southeast States Conference will make this a regular meeting place, if not but once a year. We will be glad to welcome all Locals here at any future time.

Also, we were glad to have had President Mullaney and Secretary-Treasurer Sickles at a special meeting called by Local No. 13, and we appreciate the help they gave us on problems that have bothered us for more than a year.

Again I thank you, Brothers Mullaney and Sickles, in behalf of Local No. 13.

Also Vice President Hullinghorst helped us out. He is a great guy and hope we will have the pleasure of meeting him again soon.

of allied Building Trades and some members of the Upholsterers' Union being used on canvas sewing.

He reported of an instance where Plasterers solicited work from our employers without being sent by our Business Agent. These men were reprimanded by the General Office following communication from Secretary Sickles.

He closed his report by enumerating the many jobs in his territory that included Army Cantonments, Navy Air Bases and Shipyards.

Business Agent Gaspic, of Local No. 33, reported his entire membership working steadily, with overtime. A majority of the shops working the boys on a 48-hour schedule, while two shops are working overtime intermittently.

He reported work slowing up. He also enumerated the jobs now operating throughout the State.

Following a discussion and comparison on conditions and situations peculiar to the trade, International Vice President Hoff gave the delegates a resume of the General Executive Board session held earlier this month and his personal observations of the activity of General President Mullaney and General Secretary Sickles and the tremendous amount of work caused them by our war activities.

With no further business and upon motion, meeting was adjourned at 2 p. m., and delegates to dinner as guests of Local No. 33.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN A. GASPIC,
Secretary.

Business Agent Smith, of Local No. 60, reported present jobs completed in about four weeks with projects now under way ready for our membership in the near future.

Business Agent Thomason, of Local No. 67, reported all members at work in addition to 19 Plasterers. Prospects for future work look bright.

Brother Warren, of Local No. 67, called to the attention of the delegates that he first met President Mullaney in Jacksonville in 1917 in the days of old Local No. 53 at Jacksonville.

He instructed all Business Agents to procure Plasterers to supply labor demands through the Plasterers' Business Agent representing the territory in which the job is located and in no instance permit Plasterers to personally solicit jobs from our employers. He said this advice was in conformity with the announcement printed in both the Plasterers' Journal and our own January, 1943, Journal issue.

Secretary-Treasurer Sickles' talk was about wage rates and explained how he has been able to help individual members and Locals obtain work and wage rates. He also gave advice on other topics connected with the work of the Secretary at the General Office.

Vice President Hullinghorst gave a short talk on his dealings with the Plasterers, and feels that they are a very good asset to the Asbestos Workers, and advises the delegates to "go along with them" in accordance with both our agreement with the Plasterers and the orders of General Somervell, who said, "Speaking for the Government, I want to say to the crafts who find trouble in supplying labor that they should place plasterers, tile setters and other building mechanics to work in preference to cab drivers and other men from the streets who never saw the inside of a building during construction or handled tools."

The Conference, by unanimous vote, selected the city of Savannah, Ga., for its next meeting.

The business of the Conference having been completed, the meeting adjourned at 5 p. m., after which the delegates and guests attended a dinner tendered them by Local No. 13.

Respectfully submitted,

H. M. HOFFMAN,
Secretary.

The meeting was called to order at 10 a. m. by President B. F. Beikirch, and the following delegates responded to the roll call; J. Farrell, Local No. 4, Buffalo, N. Y.; George Rider, Local No. 12, New York City; Patrick O'Connor, Local No. 12, New York City; B. F. Beikirch, Local No. 26, Rochester, N. Y.; George Scherbyn, Local No. 26, Rochester, N. Y.; P. J. Hannan, Local No. 30, Syracuse, N. Y.; P. J. McCormick, Local No. 30, Syracuse, N. Y., and J. C. Fallon, Local No. 40, Albany, N. Y.

International President Joseph A. Mullaney was also present at this meeting.

All bills were read and upon motion were ordered paid.

The minutes of the last regular meeting were read and upon motion approved.

Delegate Farrell, of Local No. 4, Buffalo, N. Y., reported that conditions are excellent, with all men employed and 30 additional Plasterers also working.

Delegate Farrell reported in detail regarding the Laco Company, of Jamestown, N. Y., and stated that the Jamestown, N. Y., Building Trades Council has placed the Laco Company on the unfair list. Also, they are now operating a non-union shop and are unfair to Local No. 4.

Delegate O'Connor, of Local No. 12, New York City, stated that all members are at work at the present time with 28 additional Plasterers. Private work is slowing up but received considerable work when boilers were converted from oil to coal. Work on the boats is holding up well, but in the near future work in New York City will be very slow.

Delegate Beikirch, of Local No. 26, Rochester, N. Y., stated that conditions are excellent with all members working in addition to 15 Plasterers.

He also stated that while Local No. 26 is busy at the present time, prospects for the future are poor.

Delegate McCormick stated that conditions are excellent at the present time. All men are working with an additional 150 Plasterers helping out during the rush period. Work is slowing down, and by mid-summer conditions will be back to normal.

Delegate Fallon, of Local No. 40, Albany, N. Y., stated that conditions are excellent, with 20 additional Plasterers helping during the busy season. Prospects for the future are only fair, and it is expected by mid-summer that work will be at a standstill.

International President Joseph A. Mullaney addressed the Conference and advised Business Agents on questions pertaining to conditions in their respective localities.

He also spoke on workmanship and stated that it would be an education if some of our men could travel through the middle west and see for themselves the class of work which is being done in that section of the country. The work being done there is probably the finest possible in accordance with the International Code of Workmanship.

President Mullaney also spoke on absenteeism and instructed the delegates to do their utmost to discourage this sort of thing if and when it should be called to their attention.

There being no further business, a motion was made and seconded to adjourn at 3 p. m. Carried.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN C. FALLON,
Secretary.
