Some Scientific Facts

▶Electric trolley locomotives are used extensively in coal mines. However, they are responsible for much loss of life and property because of the ignition of gas or dust by arcs and sparks coming from them.

▶Fresh green and leafy vegetables are rich in vitamin A, and when gathered are nearly equivalent to oranges in vitamin C. They often lose 75 per cent of this later through standing, chopping, bruising and cooking.

▶Seaweed-derived chemicals have numerous uses and additional possible uses in the production of foodstuffs, textiles, transparent paper, plastics, sizing substances, and surgical, medical, and dental materials.

▶A robin, it is reported, made her nest on top of a brake cylinder under a passenger railroad car that made a 136-mile daily round trip. Each evening she found the car and occupied the nest for the night.

▶A 400,000-pound copper coil for an atom-smashing synchrocyclotron, wound at the Brooklyn Navy Yard, was shipped to the Carnegie Institute of Technology, Pittsburgh, via the Gulf of Mexico and the Mississippi and Ohio Rivers, because it was too large to go by rail and too heavy to go by motor truck.

▶The importance of hemp as a commercial crop in Chile is indicated by figures showing that approximately 30,000 persons are employed in the hemp industry in that country.

▶Tung tree orchards, to produce tung oil, need nitrogen fertilizer. Growers supply it by fertilizing the land with low-cost phosphates to raise a cover crop of winter legumes, which are plowed under with the nitrogen they have taken from the air.

▶Lens grinding was formerly an art that required long training. Today, as a result of war development, lenses are ground mechanically to a remarkable precision.

▶The largest shoe leather tanning centers in the United States are in Pennsylvania and Wisconsin. These states have large forests of oak and hemlock, from which tannin is obtained.

▶Wasteful coal mining leaving a considerable percentage of the hard-to-recover fuel underground, is a matter which coal operators are now being urged to remedy.

Report of the GENERAL PRESIDENT

JOSEPH A. MULLANEY
General President

ST. PAUL, MINN.,
October 4, 1949.

To the Officers and Membership, Affiliated Locals.

GREETINGS:

The activities of your President during the past quarter began with his usual duties and continued until mid-July when he was rushed to the hospital and operated on.

While there and during his convalescence at home your President was kept up to date with our craft conditions through visits of Secretary Sickles, Vice President Mulligan and the General Office telephone.

A committee from Local No 104, New York Naval Shipyard, visited his home and was advised on the subject matter discussed.

After your President had satisfied both the doctor and himself that he was "ready for the road" he came to this city, where with Vice President Mulligan he represented our International Association at the convention of the Building and Construction Trades Department, that last convened in this city 31 years ago with your President a delegate.

At Minneapolis, the "twin city" ten miles from here, our Midwest Conference held its semi-annual session last Saturday, with Secretary Sickles and your President in attendance. The minutes of this meeting and other Conferences printed in this JOURNAL issue show our craft work to be holding its own with some of our Locals increasing their wage rates.

On the evening following the Midwest Conference a dinner dance was given by Local No. 34 in honor of its international officers. It was attended by the Conference delegates, their women folks and our employers. It proved to be an enjoyable affair with Mr. Cobb, representing the employers' association, making a short talk, followed by Secretary Sickles and your President.

Last evening Secretary Sickles and your President were the dinner guests of our employers in Minneapolis, followed by a meeting of the Joint Trade Board, at which several craft questions were given the consideration they deserved.

While in this city, Secretary Sickles and your President met with John F. O'Connell, representing the Bechtel Corporation of Los Angeles, who request union shop recognition. This outfit is recognized as a "National" by the Building and Construction Trades Department, and as such is privileged to, and does, employ building tradesmen throughout the country in line with the letter and spirit of Local Union agreements governing the job territory. Our Locals can now add the name of Bechtel to their lists of fair employers.

Our membership should not fail to vote at the coming elections, and when so doing forget the old "party habit" of the "straight ticket." Mark your ballot in favor of the Republican, Democrat, or Independent who is on record as being against the Taft-Hartley law and who is favored and endorsed by Labor's League for Political Education, whose membership include the working men and women of our country, including the Asbestos Worker.

This report is submitted from the city of St. Paul, where the convention of the Building and Construction Trades Department closed last week, and where the American Federation of Labor Convention opened yesterday for a ten-day session. Secretary Sickles and your President are seated as delegates representing our International Association.

Fraternally,

Joseph A. Mullaney

President.

A. M. A. Propaganda Too Crooked for 'Publicity Man'

A severe blow was dealt the "Doctors' Trust" this week when David Brown, a high-powered "public relations" man, resigned from the American Medical Association's propaganda organization in protest against its unscrupulous methods.

The significance of Brown's action is increased by the fact that he shares the A. M. A.'s hostility toward President Truman's health insurance bill, designed to provide medical service for all the American people, including the poor.

Brown gave up his highly-paid job, not because he disagreed with the purpose of the propaganda, but because it was too crooked for even a hard-boiled "publicity man."

As Labor reported, the A. M. A. is paying $100,000 a year to Whitaker and Baxter, a "publicity firm" which made a reputation by killing a state health insurance bill in California. As part of the campaign against Truman's national plan, Whitaker and Baxter hired Brown about three months ago and sent him around the country arranging dinners for newspaper men, so they could be pumped full of propaganda along with expensive food and drinks.

Brown did not come cheap, because he was editor-in-chief of Liberty, a widely read magazine. Before that, he had experience on newspapers and as a "publicity agent."

When he began working for Whitaker and Baxter, he found he had to help spread such false propaganda as the tale that the Federal Government, through the F. B. I. was "terrorizing" doctors who oppose the health insurance bill.

So Brown resigned with a hot letter to Whitaker and Baxter, protesting that the "Doctors' Trust" propaganda was more than he could stomach.

...EDITORIAL...

You and the Federal Reserve Board

THE Federal Reserve Building is one of the most striking of all the public structures in Washington, D. C. The building expresses stability and character as well it should for the primary function of the Federal Reserve System is to help provide stability to the economic system of the United States.

The Federal Reserve System was founded in December, 1913, and so it is nearing its thirty-sixth anniversary. One of the greatest accomplishments of Woodrow Wilson's first administration was the establishment and development of the System.

The Federal Reserve operations are almost completely unfamiliar to the working people of the country yet they are the first to be affected by its activities. The original purpose of the System, as conceived by its founders, were to give the country an elastic currency, to improve supervision of banks and to provide facilities for discounting commercial paper.

The purposes have been somewhat broadened through the years. The great objective now is to guard against inflation and deflation and to do its share in creating conditions favorable to high employment with a constantly rising standard of consumption.

In 1937 the building pictured on this month's cover was opened and the late President Roosevelt well stated the aim in saying:

"I dedicate this building to progress toward an ideal America in which every worker will be able to provide his family at all times with an ever-rising standard of comfort."

How close to you as a worker is the Federal Reserve System? You have only to look into your billfold at the paper money you are carrying to see. Seven-eighths of the currency of the country is in the form of Federal Reserve notes and the System through its influence on the money supply has an influence on every person in the country.

In the days before the Federal Reserve the supply of money was limited and did not respond to the changing needs of the nation. Money supply was concentrated in large financial centers. When demands as a whole or in particular areas became acute, it was not always easy to get money and there resulted financial distress in the form of falling security prices, rising interest rates and liquidated loans. After some years of study the Federal Reserve System was set up to give the country a more flexible currency.

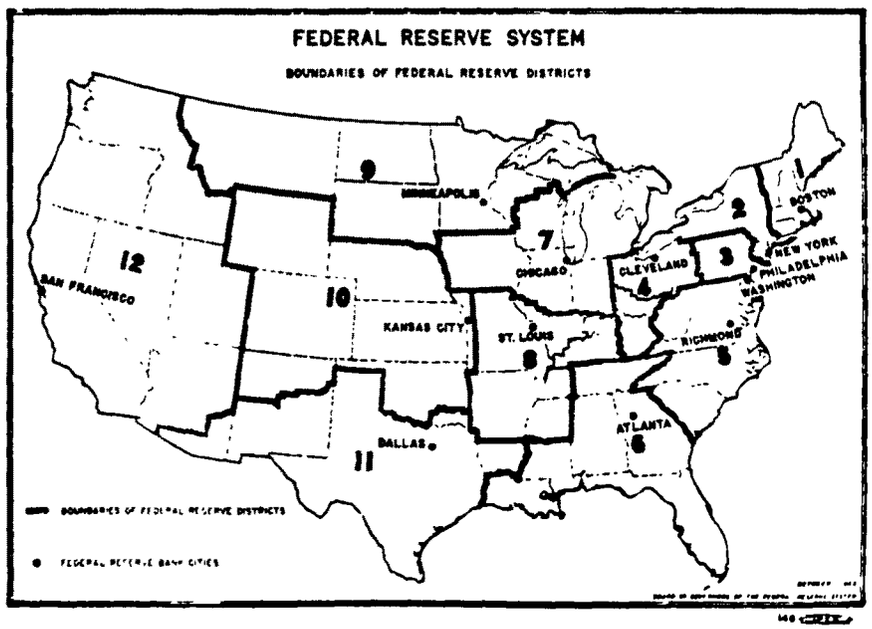

Most modern nations have some sort of central banking system such as the Bank of England, the Bank of France, and the Bank of Canada. Our system is rather a combination since it has the Federal Reserve Bank and regional reserve banks and branches.

The System serves its member banks in the following ways:

—holding member banks' reserve balances;
—furnishes currency for circulation;
—effects telegraphic transfer of funds;
—facilitates the clearance and collection of checks;
—examines and supervises state member banks and obtains reports of conditions from them;
—collects and interprets economic information bearing on credit problems;
—acts as fiscal agents, custodians and depositaries for the U. S. Treasury and other government agencies.

One of the most dramatic illustrations of the operation of the Federal Reserve functions occurred recently with the control of consumer credit

Report of the SECRETARY-TREASURER

C. W. SICKLES
Secretary-Treasurer

ST. PAUL, MINN.,
October 4, 1949.

To the Officers and Membership, Affiliated Locals.

GREETINGS:

The activities of your Secretary-Treasurer away from the General Office during the past quarter, in accordance with instructions of President Mullaney, began with a visit and conference at the Flushing, Long Island, hospital where President Mullaney had undergone a major operation.

This hospital visit was followed by several subsequent visits and consideration to trade problems at the President's residence at Elmhurst, for the guidance of your Secretary-Treasurer during the period of convalescence.

Your Secretary-Treasurer, at the request of the New Orleans, La., Insulating Contractors Association, made a rush trip "by plane" to lend the services of the General Office in terminating a work stoppage.

Immediately upon arrival at New Orleans, a preliminary conference was held by representatives of the employers' association and the Agreement Committee of Local No. 53, together with your Secretary-Treasurer, and after some two hours this conference was, at the suggestion of your Secretary-Treasurer, recessed in order to permit the employer representatives to confer with the employers' association as a whole, and with the definite understanding that the Local committee and your Secretary-Treasurer would stand by and be available on an hour's notice to reconvene.

To put it mildly, your Secretary-Treasurer was surprised when Business Agent Hullinghorst received a phone call the next morning from the employers' association chairman, advising that they, the employers, did not desire to have further meetings. As this JOURNAL issue goes to press the work stoppage, some five weeks later, is still in effect thanks to outside influence in the person of a so-called labor consultant, to whom our New Orleans employers are looking for advice and guidance.

To the reverse, the labor stoppage at Tulsa, Okla., was after the entrance of the General Office at the request of the employer of a large portion of the Local, resolved and the stoppage terminated within 24 hours, in compliance with advice and suggestions of the General Office, which settlement met the approval of all parties concerned.

Then came Chicago, where your Secretary-Treasurer represented President Mullaney on behalf of our International Association at the funeral services and interment of Brother William Mulligan, of Local No. 17, brother of our Senior Vice President, Hugh E. Mulligan.

The sudden death of "Willie" as he was affectionately known in his home Local, and to the delegates of our recent conventions, came as a great shock, and his passing leaves a void in our International and Local No. 17 which will be keenly felt for a long, long time.

Your Secretary further reports the representation of our International Association at the ever-increasing number of labor conferences and gatherings in our Nation's Capital, including meetings of Labor's League for Political Education. Our Locals shortly will be receiving communications direct from the League containing information, advice and requests for cooperation.

This report is being submitted from St. Paul, Minn., where your Secretary and President Mullaney are attending, as delegates representing our International Association, the Sixty-eighth Annual Convention of the American Federation of Labor.

Fraternally yours,

C. W. Sickles
Secretary-Treasurer.

TVA Head Lauds Labor For Cooperative Role

Good labor relations on the Tennessee Valley Authority have yielded great "dividends," General Manager George F. Grant of the TVA told a rally of union members at Kingsport, Tenn.

He cited the fact that the 14,000 workers on the project are solidly organized under the banner of AFL unions and that, under a collective bargaining agreement, a remarkable record has been established in peaceful settlement of all disputes.

Only once since 1940, he said, has it been necessary to refer a controversy to an "impartial umpire." All other disputes have been disposed of at the bargaining table.

Under the agreement, he added, unions and management cooperate in the training of workers and in the development of more efficient methods of operation.

"Labor and management have demonstrated," he declared, "that a hard-headed but honest bargaining relationship will work when the parties trust each other's integrity and devotion to a common purpose.

"These relationships have paid off for the TVA and for the Valley. . . . The pay-off is not only in the harmony and efficiency with which we have worked . . . but also in the demonstration that labor standards can be as high in a public enterprise as in private enterprise — if not higher."

Federal Reserve

which was established in 1941 by an Executive Order of the President. Congress had authorized issuance of such an order in an emergency many years before.

The FRB passed now famous "Regulation W" to help curb booming consumer credit. The purpose of regulations of this sort was to curb the use of credit for the purchase of automobiles, electric refrigerators, radios, washing machines, vacuum cleaners, household furniture and other items. In wartime metal and other things which go into these appliances were scarce and going into war production it was necessary to curtail demand. After the war Regulation W was invoked to help curb inflation. Restraints were imposed through setting minimums on down payments and setting time limits on instalment buying. During this post-war reconversion period the Government felt it necessary to curb consumer demand as a measure to help control inflation.

What is the Federal Reserve System in terms of members?

The Federal Reserve System has some 7,000 member banks. Banks with national charters must belong and banks with state charters, when qualified, may voluntarily join. The number of member banks is about half of all those in the U. S. but this one-half holds more than three-fourths of the country's bank deposits.

The System is administered through a series of 12 Federal Reserve Districts, some of which have reserve branches. The 12 reserve cities are: Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Cleveland, Richmond, Va., Atlanta, Ga., Chicago, St. Louis, Minneapolis, Kansas City, Mo., Dallas, Tex., and San Francisco.

The System is supervised by the Federal Reserve Board of seven members appointed for 14-year terms by the President of the United States and confirmed by the Senate. The Board's expenses are paid out of assessments on member banks.

The economic and financial information prepared and issued by the Board are among the important data with which the public is generally familiar. The Board issues the Federal Reserve Bulletin each month and a weekly statement on assets and liabilities of member banks. Other publications, including special studies and charts, are issued by the Board. The FRB index is literally a "fever chart" on the nation's economic health.

The Federal Reserve System is an important functional agency in our present economic system. It concerns us all. With it we have better control over the tremendous economic forces which make up modern life. Without it life would be a series of erratic ups and downs with little regulation or regularity in the supply of money or the value of securities.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER:

Local No. 106 would appreciate your publishing the following account of installation of charter here in El Paso, Tex., on June 5, 1940, in your next issue.

Vice President Hullinghorst called the meeting to order at 10 a. m., at which time the charter was installed. Officers were elected and obligated. Visitors of Locals Nos. 76 and 66 were present.

In the afternoon Vice President A. L. Hullinghorst was taken across the river to the town of Ciudad, Juarez, Mexico, to see a bullfight that started at 5.30 p. m. After it was all over he was taken back to El Paso, where a dinner party was held in his honor. Members of the new Local and their families were present, as well as visitors from Locals Nos. 76 and 66.

Enclosed you will find photograph taken at the meeting and would like to have you place same in the next Journal.

Thanking you in advance, I remain,

Yours fraternally,
RODOLFO RODRIGUEZ
Secretary.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER:

Please find enclosed two copies of memorandum of agreement settled today. This agreement is identically the same as the verbal agreement with Standard Asbestos Manufacturing and Insulating Company, with which you are familiar, providing a 12½-cent-per-hour increase for Mechanics and a proportionate increase for Improvers.

Our Local No. 64 wants to thank you for helping us in getting this agreement.

We can use several men now idle in the Southwestern Conference. Anyone wishing to work in this territory, please have them contact Business Agent Barton.

Fraternally yours,
GEORGE MAJORS,

Label Department Urges Big "Buy-Union" Drive

Affiliated unions and the general membership of the American Federation of Labor were urged to get behind a stepped-up drive to promote the purchase of union-made goods and services, by the Executive Board of the AFL's Union Label Trades Department at St. Paul.

The call for action was contained in the board's report to the forty-first convention of the department in session there which reported progress in its efforts to make the American public recognize that union-made products are "the best buy anywhere in the world."

The report reviewed the tremendous successes scored by the annual Union Industries Show staged by the department for the purpose of bringing home to the public the extent to which labor-management cooperation has produced high-quality goods and services.

Urging a continued effort to promote the sale of Union Label articles, the department officers declared:

"From a selfish standpoint, we must urge every consumer to buy Union Label articles because it is the best way for him to raise his own standard of living. He will find it the only practical method of increasing the contents in his pay envelope. If self-preservation is the first law of man, let us then buy under the Union Label from a purely selfish standpoint. Union Label buying is the best way to obtain the full union benefits for all citizens.

"But there is a greater cause than the selfish one. It is buying union-made goods from a humanitarian standpoint. In industries that are unionized, there is no child labor, no sweatshop conditions and no unfair conditions for either men or women. The health of those who consume or use unfair products may be greatly impaired. To buy union-made products therefore is the greatest assurance of sanitary conditions in processing and healthful products.

"The great reforms which the American Federation of Labor advocates can be more easily accomplished by greater organization and union label buying. Collective bargaining and intelligent buying are the only methods yet discovered to raise wages, shorten hours and better the conditions of all toilers. In just the degree that American workers and their friends, as consumers, buy under the union label banner can we obtain a full measure of 'life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness!'

"Patronizing firms that display the union label, shop card and button is the best method of preserving our American system of free enterprise which has brought the highest standard of living of all times to the greatest number of people in any nation on the face of the globe. The union label is truly the symbol of freedom in action."

MINUTES OF CONFERENCE MEETINGS

MIDDLE ATLANTIC STATES

PHILADELPHIA, PA.,
August 27, 1949.

The regular quarterly meeting of the Middle Atlantic States Conference of Asbestos Workers was held on the above date at 1109 Ridge Avenue, and was called to order by Chairman James A. Roche at 12.30 p. m., with the following delegates in attendance: Local No. 11, Baltimore, Md., Business Agent Charles Moore; Local No. 14, Philadelphia, Pa., Business Agent Joseph W. Hunter; Local No. 24, Washington, D. C., Business Agent Norman L. Hoyle; Local No. 32, Essex and Hudson County, N. J., Business Agent James A. Roche; Local No. 38, Wilkes-Barre and Scranton, Pa., Secretary Herbert Bressler; Local No. 71, Allentown, Pa., Business Agent Joseph W. Hunter; and Local No. 89, Trenton, N. J., Business Agent Stephen J. Kopp.

Attending as visitors were Brothers Robert Needham, of Local No. 24, and Terence McConnell, of Local No. 32.

International President Joseph A. Mullaney sent regrets on his inability to attend this session.

Minutes of previous meeting were read and approved.

Reports of delegates:

Delegate Moore, of Local No. 11, reported work has fallen off considerably since last meeting. The bulk of work at the present time is at Sparrows Point Shipbuilding Yard. All other marine repair yards are now slow. All Local members are working, plus 65 "emergency asbestos workers."

He also reported a new wage rate of $2.25 per hour, effective October 1, 1949.

Delegate Hunter, of Local No. 14, reported work is still moving along at a good pace. Any of our idle membership can be put to work. The Texas Oil job is going along fairly well, although at the present time operations on the Socony Vacuum Oil job have been stopped. However, with a good deal of work going on throughout the city and adjacent territory, conditions are expected to be good for some time to come. Board and overtime jobs are not to be had.

He also reported a new wage rate of $2.62½ per hour, effective July 1, 1949.

Delegate Hoyle, of Local No. 24, reported conditions fairly busy, with all of Local membership, plus 35 travelers and 12 "emergency asbestos workers" now employed. Most of the large jobs are now under way or in the near ready stage. The General Accounting Office job and the Court House job have now been let for insulation. A large apartment program is also going along.

He further reported that discussions on a new agreement will soon be started, and that a welfare program is to be included in the negotiations.

Delegate Roche, of Local No. 32, reported that after a brief lull conditions have again picked up, and a good deal of work is again going on. A new brewery for the Anheuser-Busch Co., representing an outlay of $30,000,000, has been assured, with the Ballantine and Pabst Breweries also planning an expansion program.

He also reported a new wage rate of $2.62½ per hour now in effect throughout the territory.

Delegate Bressler, of Local No. 38, reported conditions still going along at a fairly good pace. The Sunbury job and the Veterans Hospital job are now in progress, but the remaining portion of the work is moving along very slowly. Prospects for the future remain fair with the membership expected to be kept employed.

Delegate Hunter, of Local No. 71, reported that entire membership is employed and expect to continue working. Future prospects look good with a fair percentage of work coming along.

Delegate Kopp, of Local No. 89, reported present conditions are now in the slow stage, with most of the large jobs in the not quite ready stage. The year that got away—

LONG AGO, he'd planned the year, the day, the hour of his retirement.

But now, a year beyond that date, his desk is still open . . . the weekday trout still in the brook.

What happened? Unexpected expenses . . . Nickie starting college . . . the last of Mom's hospital bills. He never really figured it out. But the happy day he planned was no longer in sight.

A lot of years are getting away from a lot of people . . . because they don't have a plan which helps them save money regularly. But there are people—millions in the country—who are making the most of the years, by investment in United States Savings Bonds.

It's an easy, automatic way of insuring a financial future, thanks to two simple, automatic plans:

1. The Payroll Savings Plan, at the firm where you are employed. You get a bond just as often as you like.

2. If not on a payroll, you can get a bond every month, through the Bond-A-Month Plan at your bank.

Don't let another year—another moment—escape you. Sign up today.

Automatic saving is sure saving—
U.S. Savings Bonds
