Some Facts About YOUR COVER PICTURE

Pentagon Building

THE National Defense Building is what is popularly known as the Pentagon, across the Potomac River from Washington, D. C., in Virginia.

It is the largest office building in the world, covering 29 acres, and has 6,240,000 square feet of floor space, with a present capacity of more than 30,000 workers. The Pentagon is a little city in itself, and contains a number of retail stores for the convenience of the people who work there.

Its shape is unique. The form is that of a regular pentagon and is composed of five rings separated by three open courts and a roadway, all concentric about a pentagonal court.

The National Defense Building is only five stories high, and wide ramps with easy grades in addition to five escalators eliminate the need for elevators.

There are 28 cafeteria units, capable of seating 5,640 persons. The building contains the largest branch telephone exchange in the world, with an ultimate capacity of 18,000 lines.

Concurrent with the construction of the Pentagon, it was necessary to improve the highways and roads leading to it. This modernization was accomplished and large parking areas for automobiles were added to the grounds around the building.

In these times of severe international tensions and ill will, the National Defense Building is the nerve center of our military planning and effort.

Published quarterly at Headquarters, 211 Machinists Building, Washington 1, D. C., by the International Association of Heat and Frost Insulators and Asbestos Workers. Entered as second class matter at Washington, D. C., June 28, 1934, under the Act of August 24, 1912.

Report of the GENERAL PRESIDENT

JOSEPH A. MULLANEY
General President

WASHINGTON, D. C.

January 2, 1952.

To the Officers and Membership, Affiliated Locals.

GREETINGS:

The activities of your President away from the General Office during the past quarter included a trip to Columbus, Ohio, with Secretary Sickles and attendance at the Central States Conference. During this Conference the delegates were advised and instructed in detail as to method of filing request for Government approval of wage increases which in all instances must be through the General Office.

Next came Philadelphia and a session of the Middle Atlantic States Conference.

The next jump was to Albany and attendance at the "State Legislation Day" gathering held annually at which all local unions affiliated with the New York State Federation of Labor meet and adopt the legislative program to be presented to the incoming session of the State Legislature.

Then to Syracuse on the eve of the New York State Conference and the "open house" social of Local No. 30 where the membership and their employers and the conference delegates enjoyed cold cuts and refreshments. On this occasion your President made a talk that brought the membership, particularly the younger ones, up to date on the progress of our craft from the 10-hour work-day and the $2.25 day wage.

The next day came the quarterly session of the New York State Conference of Asbestos Workers.

Next jump was to New Haven with Secretary Sickles and the regular quarterly session of the New England States Conference of Asbestos Workers. The minutes of these conferences mentioned in this report can be found printed in this Journal issue.

This report would not be complete if it did not record the sudden passing of Albert P. Dalton which happened in December when your President was on his up-State New York trip. Brother Dalton served our International Association as a Vice President and Local No. 3 as Business Agent before resigning ten years ago to represent the Cleveland Associated General Contractors. As a mark of our respect, Vice Presidents Mulligan and Hoff together with Secretary Sickles represented our International Association at the funeral service and interment at Cleveland.

Recent developments here in Washington appear to indicate there is a strong possibility that Building and Construction Trades Department sponsored Senate Bill 1973 amending the Taft-Hartley Act will be given full and serious consideration and will be pushed for early enactment when Congress returns this month. Whether or not S. 1973, properly amended, will be reported favorably out of the Senate Labor Committee, passed by the Senate and House and enacted into law is a matter which primarily will be determined by the amount of effort extended by each local and State Building and Construction Trades Council and the various individual affiliated local unions. It is therefore of utmost importance that officials and individual members of each Local and State Council and the officials and individual members of each affiliated local union personally contact their Senator and Congressman and convey to them the extreme importance of their taking an active part in pushing S. 1973 for early enactment.

Closing this first report of the New Year by again instructing our membership not to accept employment outside of the United States, I remain, with a Happy New Year to all,

Fraternally,

Joseph A. Mullaney

President.

President Truman, at flag-bedecked and impressive ceremonies, dedicated Gompers Square in Washington, D. C. Present was Secretary-Treasurer Carl W. Sickles (second from the left)

Truman Dedicates Gompers Square

PRESIDENT Truman, on October 27, honored the memory of the founder of the American Federation of Labor by dedicating Gompers Square in Washington, D. C.

The scene was an impressive one. Against a flag-bedecked background, President Truman spoke to several thousand people including a handful of Gompers' associates. He called for a fight in the spirit of Samuel Gompers to win a strong anti-inflation program, and he told those in attendance that Congress had failed to curb inflation and that "special interests" gang up on the rest of us.

AFL President William Green welcomed Truman. President Green spoke in glowing phrases of his predecessor, for his vision and high principles.

Secretary of Labor Maurice J. Tobin, Secretary of Interior Oscar Chapman, and various AFL union officials also paid tribute to the memory of Samuel Gompers.

The impressive ceremony was held on a platform facing the bronze monument to Mr. Gompers which was dedicated in 1933 by former President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

President Truman used warm words in talking about the fight for human justice. "In this emergency," he said, "you would think that all citizens would want good, strong price controls to protect themselves and the whole economy.

"But this has not proved to be the case. Scores of special interests have ganged up together for the purpose of securing special short-run advantages for themselves at the expense of all the rest of us.

"This administration will do its best, with the tools the Congress has given us, to curb inflation. But the tools are not good enough to do the job as it should be done.

"Here is part of the fight for human justice which I hope working people—and all other patriotic Americans—will carry on with increasing vigor in the months to come. We can win this fight for a strong anti-inflation program. We must not lose heart. Think of the difficulties that confronted Samuel Gompers 50 years ago. We have far less reason to be discouraged than he had."

Mr. Truman criticized the "plot to devise legal machinery to cut the strength of organized labor into little pieces, and to entangle each piece in a snare of legal restrictions and red tape."

"The entire effort is harmful not just to labor, but to the welfare of the country," Mr. Truman said. "It is a backward step, legally and economically.

"We have been fighting against it, and we must continue to fight against it.

"Our objective is to have what Samuel Gompers wanted: Fairness and justice in the law of labor-management relations. And I believe we will have that kind of a law, in the long run, in spite of all these efforts to turn back the clock of progres ."

Mr. Truman also called attention to the fact that, "Many of the squares and streets in Washington, D. C., are named after famous men. But very few of them did as much for their fellow man as the late Samuel Gompers did."

Taft-Hartley Repeal Is Labor's Aim

By James L. McDevitt,

I AM convinced that certain politicians unfriendly to labor are attempting to trick us into dividing our efforts in this year's election. They are using a method which is so old and crude that it almost outdates the origin of legislative bodies. The method is to pass a sweeping piece of vicious legislation and then repeal it piece by piece until it is all gone and then pass another sweeping bill and start all over again. The purpose of course is to buy our political silence in turn for the bones they hand out to us one at a time. By carefully voting for amendments affecting first this group and then another, they hope to keep all of the labor groups from working together in unison for the election of men who would repeal the whole act and consistently protect the interest of all working people all the time.

Don't misunderstand, I am mindful that the AFL has achieved all its great legislative gains inch by inch over the year. We have not taken an all-or-nothing stand in accepting improvements in workmen's compensation state by state. We fought hard but had to accept less than we wanted in increasing Social Security and Minimum Wage standards. We have to settle for less than we want quite often . . . and come back for improvements in the next session. But while fighting and winning small gains, we have always kept our eyes on the final overall objective . . . namely, constant improvement.

Our situation in this hour is simply this. We have been deprived of our rights with the imposition of the Taft-Hartley Act, for which there was no legal justification. Therefore, we are dedicated to fight for its complete repeal.

Since 1947 this attitude toward repeal of Taft-Hartley has prevailed. All ranks of labor, even those not affected by the Act, have stood firmly behind the ultimate objective of complete repeal of Taft-Hartley and the enactment of fair and workable legislation in its place.

At the same time we have been ready to accept amendments correcting certain unworkable features of the Act. That was true this last year in the repeal of the union shop election requirements. However, we need not fool ourselves about motives. Anti-labor Congressmen voted for this Amendment because the overwhelming votes cast for union shop contracts had embarrassed the anti-labor forces.

In addition the AFL Executive Council has agreed that the Building Trades need immediate relief from their present anomalous position. The law requires representation through union shop elections, but the N.L.R.B. is unable to hold such elections because of the nature of the Building industry. The Building Trades employers also have asked that such elections be eliminated. Under the circumstances there will be many Congressmen who will vote to correct this one unworkable feature but who would not vote to repeal the Act as a whole.

It is highly essential to have unworkable features eliminated from the Act. However, the remaining and most vicious parts of the Taft-Hartley Act are very workable . . . and aimed directly at labor. So long as employers can sue a union for every grievance and alleged breach of contract, so long as our unions are paying millions in court fees to fight injunctions, so long as the secondary boycott is a crime, so long as an employer can legally break a union during a strike by calling for an N.L.R.B. election in which only strike-breakers can vote, so long as a union is prohibited from purging its own ranks of Communists and company spies, no working man can sleep at night with a sense of security. So long as there is a majority in Congress unwilling to recognize the most elementary rights of one group of workingmen, no other group can really believe they will be spared. We know, and every Congressman knows, that every section of the Taft-Hartley Act was written deliberately to weaken and destroy unions as a whole.

It is certainly understandable that many of us should be irritated and concerned about the failure of this Congress to act on legislation repealing Taft-Hartley. However, it is important that we exercise extreme caution in making evaluations in a situation of this kind.

It is well to remind ourselves that in the present Congress we have a combination of certain reactionary Northern Republicans and certain reactionary Southern Democrats who have a controlling majority. It is a coalition government. Just as our enemies strike at us through this coalition control, so we must achieve our ends by helping to elect a coalition of friendly Republicans and friendly Democrats.

No matter what people think of the Administration in any State or on the National level, it doesn't make any difference whether the Administration is good or bad if reactionaries control the legislative body. From 1938 to 1948 both Roosevelt and Truman had one reactionary Congress after another. Starting with the Smith Amendments after 1939 and right down to the Case bill in 1946, one anti-labor bill after another was passed. The only thing that saved labor was the Presidential veto. After the 1946 election we didn't have even the one-third strength in either House to support the President's veto of Taft-Hartley in 1947.

The non-partisan political policy of Sam Gompers is as good today as it was in his day. We have no choice. Just as our opposition does, we must support our friends on the basis of their voting records, not party labels. All ranks of labor have stood firm on the principle that Congressmen consider repeal of Taft-Hartley as a whole. I am sure that the rank and file of labor and the union leaders will continue to hold to that overall purpose.

Our State and Local Leagues everywhere have indicated that their endorsement will not be given lightly to any candidate. They recognize the high ideals by which the AFL has been guided in fighting for the ordinary citizens of this country. They will judge each candidate on his attitude toward the broad overall aims of all trade unionists.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER:

On behalf of Local No. 31 I wish to express their thanks and gratitude to Secretary Sickles for his assistance with the Construction Industry Stabilization Commission of the Wage Stabilization Board in securing approval of our recent wage increase. Also our many thanks to Vice President Hoff for the help he gave us during our recent controversy with Rhode Island Covering Company and also a thank you to Locals Nos. 6, Boston, Mass., 33, Connecticut and 43, Springfield, Mass., for placing our idle membership to work during this controversy.

It sure is a pleasure to have and be associated with such officers representing our International Office as President Mullaney, Secretary Sickles and Vice President Hoff who gave me so much of their time and able assistance, for which I am sincerely grateful.

Trusting you will find space in the next issue of THE ASBESTOS WORKER to insert this small token of thanks to our International Officers, I am,

Fraternally yours,
ERNEST S. CARLSON,
Business Agent.

A Little Publicity, Please

Congress last fall voted to permit states to open up relief rolls for public inspection. So if your state allows the public to see who is unfortunate enough to be on relief it will give the snoopers and the gossips the opportunity of a lifetime to humiliate the poor and the aged.

Why doesn't Congress allow public inspection of the names of those who receive tax rebates and tax reductions from the government?

Why doesn't Congress allow public inspection of the pay rolls of Senate and House office staffs?

Why doesn't Congress abolish secret votes—such as votes taken merely by counting noses?

Why doesn't Congress allow public inspection of the minutes of committee hearings where tax bills are written?

Why doesn't Congress allow public inspection of the names of farmers who receive government subsidies?

The white light of publicity is a wonderful thing for Congressmen—as long as it shines on the humble while the influential can hide in the shadows it throws in the halls of Congress.

CONSTRUCTION INDUSTRY STABILIZATION COMMISSION
WAGE STABILIZATION BOARD
UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF LABOR BUILDING
WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

Building & Construction Trades Department,
A. F. of L. Building,
Washington, D. C.

Dec. 13, 1951

Gentlemen:

As you know, the Construction Industry Stabilization Commission is very much concerned with ways and means of expediting the handling of cases involving wage or other adjustments before it. Through experience the Commission has learned that those cases which are fully prepared by the parties generally can be acted on much sooner than those cases in which the Commission must write for additional information. The Commission is interested in having this fact given as wide circulation as possible, and at the Commission's direction the attached bulletin has been prepared and is being circulated. It would be greatly appreciated if you would call this matter to the attention of the appropriate person or persons in your union who are concerned with the cases coming before the Commission.

Very truly yours,
/s/ Laurence E. Seibel
Executive Director

Bulletin

In order to expedite the handling of cases, the Construction Industry Stabilization Commission requires the following evidence, when appropriate, in support of applications for wage or other adjustments:

1. Wage Adjustments: Two attested copies of the collective bargaining agreement which established the rates paid on June 24, 1950, and two attested copies of all subsequent agreements; or, if no formal agreements were negotiated, joint attested statements by the Union and the contractors' association (or if no contractors' association, by individual contractors), as to the rates paid on June 24, 1950 and all subsequent changes in such rates.

2. Other Adjustments: A joint attested statement by the union and the contractors' association (or if no contractors' association, by individual contractors) as to the practice of other crafts in the area with respect to the particular adjustment sought and as to the practice of other locals of the same craft in surrounding areas.

HEAT and FROST INSULATORS and ASBESTOS WORKERS

AFFILIATED WITH THE AMERICAN FEDERATION OF LABOR AND THE BUILDING AND CONSTRUCTION TRADES DEPARTMENT

GENERAL OFFICE
211 Machinists Bldg
WASHINGTON 1, D. C.

December 28, 1951

To Financial Secretaries of all Local Unions,

Greetings:

Once again the drive for voluntary contributions to Labor's League for Political Education is about to begin. This year we are asking all members to join and receive a League membership card in order that we may take an active part in the crucial political campaigns throughout the country in 1952.

Each of our local unions has been forwarded a supply of membership cards which they are expected to sell to the members. The money collected from the voluntary sale of these membership cards, along with the stubs, should be returned as quickly as possible to George Meany, Secretary-Treasurer, Labor's League for Political Education, 1523 H Street, N. W., Washington 6, D. C. The amount asked from each voluntary contributor is only one dollar ($1.00).

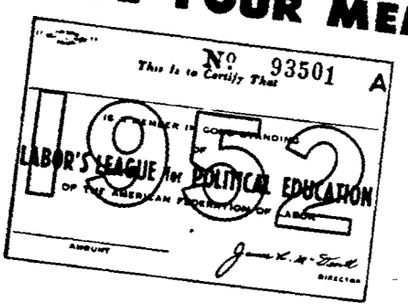

Today more than ever union members find it necessary to take part in politics. Not only our trade unions, but our entire way of life has been threatened by hostile legislation. We have witnessed in the last four or five years a definite concerted drive by reactionary forces to take away the economic and social gains won by the workers through long years of struggle. I am sure you will agree with me when I say we must be active in politics. We must, each of us, do our share to help elect persons to public office who will consider the interests of all the people when considering legislation that will affect all of the people.

Labor's League for Political Education was created by the American Federation of Labor. Our organization has approved of the League and is supporting its policies and program. Therefore, I am asking that you give your immediate attention to establishing a voluntary committee within the local to handle the sale of the membership cards forwarded to you. I sincerely hope that the local union officers will all take an active part in bringing this important program to the attention of each member of your organization.

Sincerely and fraternally,

Member of the National Committee,
Labor's League for Political Education

Congressional Probe of H-Plant Attacked as 'Unwarranted'

Congressional investigations of the new hydrogen bomb plant being built in South Carolina were called "unwarranted."

The investigations, some of which were made to try to prove that labor unions are bad, were denounced in testimony last November before the Joint Congressional Committee on Defense Production. The testimony has just been made public.

A House Labor subcommittee spent several days holding hearings in Augusta, Ga., early in November on labor "racketeering" charges.

Wants Low Wages

Actually, the subcommittee, headed by Rep. Graham Barden (D., N. C.), who is also chairman of the House Labor Committee, was interested only in keeping wage rates low throughout the South.

AFL trade unions have been bringing good wages and working conditions to the hydrogen bomb plant construction project.

The Dixiecrat campaign for more cheap labor in the South was begun early in 1951 by Dixiecrat Gov. James Byrnes of South Carolina. Other Congressmen in addition to Barden who are backing the low-wage drive are W. M. (Don) Wheeler and John Wood, both Georgia Dixiecrats.

Investigators for the Joint Defense Production Committee did not even look into the Dixiecrat charges of labor "racketeering" when they inspected the South Carolina project. Evidently they considered the charges so ridiculous that they decided it was not worthwhile to check into them.

AEC Plagued

The investigators, Rear Admiral Carl H. Cotter and Daniel L. O'Connor, a former FBI agent, found that investigations have "plagued" the Atomic Energy Commission while it tries to build this important hydrogen bomb plant just as quickly as it possibly can.

As a witness told the House Labor subcommittee early in November:

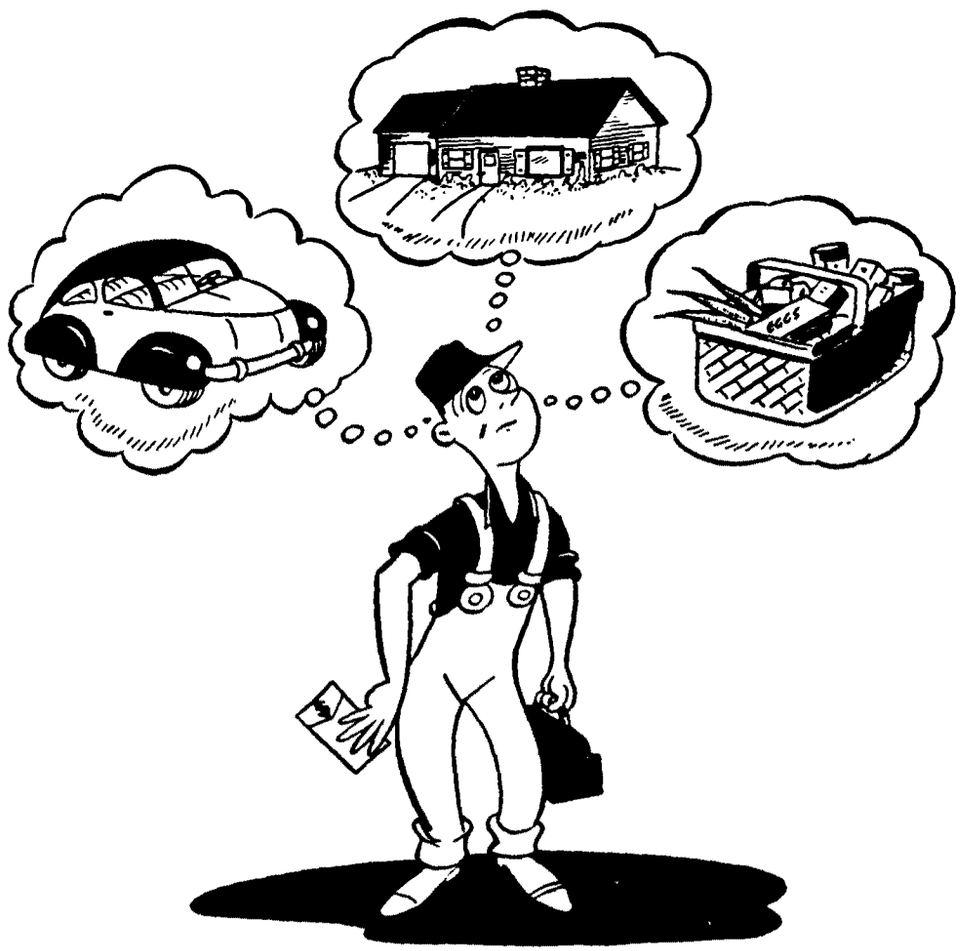

"We can't pour concrete and attend investigations at the same time."

The Conference was called to order at 10:30 a. m. by Chairman Henry Koziol.

The following delegates were present: John W. Hoff, Local No. 6, Boston, Mass.; Ernest Carlson, Edwin Olsen and Leo Fitzsimons, Local No. 31, Providence, R. I.; Anthony Gaspic, Marlin Recor and Walter Morrell, Local No. 33, Connecticut; Henry Koziol, Charles Hill and Albert Hill, Local No. 43, Springfield, Mass.

Also in attendance were President Joseph A. Mullaney and Secretary C. W. Sickles.

Minutes of the previous meeting held in Springfield, Mass., June 9, 1951, were read and accepted.

Delegate Koziol of Local No. 43 reporting for the Springfield area states all men working and a few Emergency Asbestos Workers. Prospects for the future very good along with a new City Hospital and another unit being added to the Western Mass. Electric Power Plant and numerous new school projects.

Delegates C. Hill and A. Hill of Local No. 43 reporting for the Worcester district state work is plentiful with housing projects, high schools, St. Vincent's Hospital plus some industrial work. Also report on activities of one of our sister local's employer supervising a group of non-union Asbestos Workers on a project which their men walked out on due to violation of trade agreement. Said work being done after hours with light supplied by auto headlights. They also report of a non-union operator who agreed to give up soliciting work and become a member of Local No. 43 but recently changed his mind and is now working for one of our fair shops as their representative employing Local No. 43 men.

Delegate Hoff of Local No. 6 reports all goes well in his territory and a volume of work going at present and plenty ahead in the offing. Many men at Limestone Maine Air Base enjoying overtime work along with New Salem, Mass., Power Plant, two new air fields in the making, plus three new power plant jobs to come along very shortly and a new vets hospital at Brockton, Mass. Several Emergency Asbestos Workers working along with travelers. Prospects very good for the coming year.

Delegates Gaspic, Recor and Morrell of Local No. 33 report tremendous amount of work in their territory and several Emergency Asbestos Workers working along with many of Local No. 12 men in Connecticut. They reported future meeting with their employers relative to a wage increase. Large operation at Bridgeport, Power House at Middletown and a new hospital at New Haven and many school houses and state there will be no idle mechanics in Connecticut for the coming year.

Delegates Carlson, Olsen and Fitzsimons of Local No. 31 report on new wage agreement signed with their employers and approved by the Construction Industry Stabilization Commission at Washington effective November 20, 1951, with wage rate of $2.69½ for Mechanics and similar increase for Improvers. Wage rates are identical with Local No. 6. They report violation of trade agreement by one of their employers, causing the men to voluntarily stop work for said employer for a period of four weeks. About 65 men were working for the shop. Many meetings were held by both the Union and employer with legal talent brought in by both sides. Settlement finally reached with the employer making a donation to a hospital fund for violating the agreement twice for the same offense and the placing of a substantial check in escrow, same to be forfeited in the event the offense takes place again and said check to be donated to some charitable organization named by the Trade Board. Many extra men working and the coming year looks excellent. Many men on Montaup Power Plant, new unit at Narragansett Power Station under way along with new hospitals and schools. They also expect much defense work which includes work at the Torpedo Station and Newport.

President Mullaney warned the Conference not to have any of their membership solicit work outside the United States as it is very detrimental and does more harm than good. Several questions asked by members of the Conference on traveler status and mechanical examination of new Mechanic members along with payments on board were answered by President Mullaney.

Secretary Sickles gave some very interesting facts relative to filing new rates with the Construction Industry Stabilization Commission at Washington, the proper processing of same not to exceed the ten percent law in effect throughout the country at present and the waiting period for a reply. Some locals have filed with their local wage board, Secretary Sickles states, and this has caused a long delay. He warns all to file at Washington through our General Office and he will handle it from there on.

At the request of President Mullaney the Conference stood for one minute of silence for our dear departed brothers.

The Holiday Season's Greetings were then exchanged by all present and the Conference was then invited to be the guests of Local No. 33 for luncheon in the hotel. Meeting adjourned at 1:45 p. m.

Respectfully submitted,
JOHN W. HOFF,
Secretary.

Is Senate for Rich Men Only?

The Washington, D. C., Star said on November 27 in an editorial that "the most solid conclusion that will emerge from the investigation of Senator Taft's Ohio campaign is that you can't argue with a man who has won an election by 431.000 votes." It said also that "the Taft-Hartley Act is a good law and it serves a good purpose."

AFL President William Green took exception in a letter to Editor B. M. McKelway:

Dear Sir:

I am confident that quite a number of the readers of the Evening Star were filled with resentment when they read the editorial entitled "Investigating Senator Taft" which appeared in the November 27 edition. I interpret the editorial referred to as reflecting the indefensible, reactionary editorial policy of the Evening Star.

First of all, it is made clear in the editorial, that in the editorial opinion of the Evenng Star no limitation should be placed upon the amount of money which a candidate for election to the United States Senate should spend in his campaign. I interpret the editorial to mean that no objection should be offered to the expenditure of five million dollars, or more, by Senator Taft and his friends during his campaign in Ohio for election to the United States Senate. How long can our democratic form of government last under such procedure? Such a policy would mean that men who are possessed of unlimited sums of money could spend it in an election campaign without violating any law or committing any offense.

You refer to labor and the representatives of labor as evil forces because they deemed it their duty under our free democratic form of government, to oppose Senator Taft for reelection to the United States Senate, and in your editorial you state the Taft-Hartley Act is a good law and it serves a good purpose.

The facts are that the Taft-Hartley law limits the freedom, curtails the liberty and inflicts a vicious blow upon the dignity of labor. Those who sponsored the Taft-Hartley law had this purpose in mind when it was drafted and introduced into the Senate of the United States. It was originally designed to weaken organized labor, to prevent workers from being efficient in their efforts to improve living standards and to promote human welfare.

Suppose Congress would pass a law limiting freedom of the press, thus curtailing the exercise of liberty and democracy! No doubt the editor of the Evening Star would join with other editors in opposing the enactment of such legislation. The owners of newspapers and their editors would be justified in putting forth special efforts to bring about the defeat of a member of Congress who introduced such legislation robbing them of their freedom and their liberty. However, in your editorial you denounce labor organizations and the representatives of labor organizations because they oppose the Taft-Hartley Act which robs them of freedom, independence and dignity.

Such legislation as the Taft-Hartley Act will serve to encourage communism. It creates resentment against the author of the legislation and against those elected to Congress who vote for it. It is difficult to understand why an editor would favor the enactment of such highly objectionable legislation as the Taft-Hartley Act, which creates widespread resentment among the masses of the people and thus serves to promote the spread of communism.

The membership of the American Federation of Labor, numbering 8 million, and its officers stand uncompromising and immovable in opposition to communism or the Communist philosophy. They defend free enterprise and our American form of government. Because of the serious days through which we are passing and because of the invasion of communism in all countries throughout the world, labor in America should be strengthened and encouraged in its determination to oppose communism. That would be to the advantage of the owners of the Evening Star and the reactionary newspapers of the nation who are the real beneficiaries of our free enterprise system. Do you want the millions of workers in America to stand and fight communism and the invasion of communism in the United States? If so, then do not rive them from that position through your support and approval of vicious legislation such as the Taft-Hartley law.

Is Senate for Rich Men Only?

The movement to overthrow free, democratic forms of government in nations in Europe and elsewhere where communism has won great victories, originated within the ranks of discontented, resentful, poverty-stricken workers. For instance, Czechoslovakia became communistic when the workers in that country launched a revolution, overthrew the free, democratic form of government and established communism. Lessons and experiences of that kind should not be overlooked or forgotten by reactionaries in our own country who extend a full measure of support to anti-labor legislation such as the Taft-Hartley law.

Regarding labor bosses to whom you refer in an insulting way—it was not labor bosses who defeated Senator Ball in Minnesota and elected Senator Humphrey, who defeated Senator Brooks in Illinois and elected Senator Douglas, who defeated Senator Revercomb in West Virginia and elected Senator Neely; it was the rank and file of workers who stepped into the voting booths and cast their votes in the secrecy of said booths, free from the interference of labor bosses. The candidates for re-election in the states named were defeated because they voted for the Taft-Hartley law, and those who were elected won because they opposed said law.

In the name and in behalf of the 8 million members of the American Federation of Labor I vigorously protest against the preparation and publication of the editorial entitled "Investigating Senator Taft."

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM GREEN, President
American Federation of Labor

November 28, 1951.
