WHY UNIONS?

"In union there is strength," the founding fathers of our nation knew almost two centuries ago. From the 13 colonies, each with its own traditions and its way of life, they set out to found "a more perfect union."

The "union" they established — our United States of America—has grown through the years in power, in influence and in moral standing among the peoples of the world.

The glory of our American democracy is the fact that we recognize and admire change. It is part of our way of life to build new institutions; and having built them, we constantly endeavor to improve them.

So it is with America's democratic trade union movement. From early beginnings—going back into colonial history—working men have banded together to form trade unions for the purpose of bargaining collectively with employers.

Like our nation, our trade union movement has grown through the decades to positions of strength, of influence, of responsibility.

Yet, today, we of the AFL-CIO continue to seek a "more perfect union"—and in doing so, we seek the understanding and sympathy of men and women of good will. For America is a nation of workers, whose productive capacity has become the envy of the world. In developing their "more perfect unions," American workers have contributed much to the development of citizenship, of community education and of a better, more balanced, economy for all people in the United States.

In other words, it is our belief that what is good for America is good for labor, and conversely, that labor has much to contribute to the future, continuing improvement of the general welfare of all Americans.

From the General President

REDUCTION OF SURCHARGE ON FAITHFUL DISCHARGE BONDING

After many months of negotiating the labor movement received an official announcement from John F. Fitzgerald, Secretary of the Surety Association of America, that the surcharge for faithful discharge of duty bonding coverage applicable to labor organizations has been reduced from 50% to 25%.

This reduction was effective October 4, 1961, in all states in which it was approved except Texas, where it became effective October 8.

The reduction in rate will be applied on and after the effective date to all new bonds written thereafter and on outstanding bonds pro rata refunds will be allowed immediately or retroactively at the next premium anniversary date. In view of the heavy expense involved, it is, of course, preferable for the companies to allow the refund at the next premium anniversary date of the coverage.

The Surety Association of America advised that because "few, if any, claims" have been filed with the surety companies under the "faithful discharge" phrase of the Landrum-Griffin Act, the companies feel justified in cutting the rates.

This decision by the officers of the Surety Association was brought about after a meeting initiated by the Secretary-Treasurer of the AFL-CIO with officers of the association and a group of secretary-treasurers of international unions.

At this meeting it was pointed out that not one international union, compelled to add "faithful discharge" coverage to its fidelity bonds by passage of the Landrum-Griffin Act in 1959, had filed a valid claim with the surety companies involving the "faithful discharge" section of the law.

The Landrum Griffin Act declared that the bond must cover not only simple dishonesty, theft or embezzlement, but also a new concept called "faithful discharge."

This new concept was also a new experience for the bonding companies who, to meet unknown contingencies, increased fidelity bond premium costs by 50 per cent, which they ultimately found was unwarranted.

A telegram sent to the secretary-treasurers of all AFL-CIO affiliates asking their experience under the "faithful discharge" clause brought replies that aided greatly in getting the rate cut.

Replies from 122 national and international unions reported that not a single "faithful discharge" claim had been filed and six affiliated departments of the AFL-CIO reported that not a single claim had been filed.

The AFL-CIO itself had not filed any claims. Up to this date only eleven national and international unions, most of them very small, had not replied.

Responsible union financial officers and employees have a record incomparably superior to the record of responsible officers and employees of banks.

If you put the record of the officers and employees of banks against the record of trade union financial officers and employees, the balance is shockingly against the banks—and should be shocking to the country.

Roughly $20 million was embezzled by bank officials or employees from January 1, 1958 to June 30, 1960, according to the Digest of Bank Insurance published by the Insurance and Protective Committee of the American Bankers Association.

These dishonesty losses occurred in banks with deposits ranging from $750,000 to over $2,000,000 and covers some 12,350 banks throughout the nation.

A blunt speech by F. Byers Miller, executive director of the Association for Bank Audit, Control and Operation, recently warned that "an average of one out of eight banks in the United States" will on the basis of experience, "report a bank fraud this year."

The Miller speech was given in an address this year to the Ohio Bankers Association and the Arkansas Bankers Association. It has now been printed and is being distributed to banks all over the country, with a covering letter from the president of the auditors' trade group, Winslow E. Pike, of the First National Bank of Atlanta. Mr. Pike warns that unless bankers solve "the entire problem of embezzlements facing banks . . . as independent members of a free enterprise society," the government will move toward "additional . . . regulation and interference."

Mr. Pike now will be apprehensive. Mr. Miller set forth the facts in his speech entitled "Let's Put Out The Fire," addressed to the inner circle of bankers.

Said Mr. Miller: "The Federal Bureau of Investigation reported that in the twelve months of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1960, 'there were 7,771 individual cases' of internal bank fraud."

Who were the people working for banks who stole the banks' money? Mr. Miller cited the FBI as classifying "persons involved in embezzlements" as follows:

"42.7% by tellers, clerks and

Special Meeting of the General Executive Board

THE special meeting of the General Executive Board was called to order Thursday, August 10, 1961 at 10 a.m. at the General Office by General President C. W. Sickles with the following members responding to roll call: International Vice Presidents Hugh E. Mulligan, George Rider, Malcolm Detlefs, Andrew T. Haas, Michael H. Nicols, Brooks Baker and J. Wayne Kelly; International Assistants A. L. Hullinghorst and William Howell; International Organizer John W. Hoff and General Secretary-Treasurer Albert E. Hutchinson.

The Board considered problems currently of interest to our craft locally, regionally and internationally and the various items were taken under consideration and policies determined in connection with same for the guidance of our International Officers in assisting our local union representatives in processing their day to day problems as they arise.

The first issue on the agenda was the organizational program of our craft work in the southeast and particularly the Carolina's with regard to the non-Union activities of the Daniels Construction Company which, of course, affects not only the Asbestos Worker but all building trades crafts. International Assistant A. L. Hullinghorst made a detailed report on his activities in connection with the problem as per assignment by President Sickles. The Board after due consideration instructed President Sickles to continue this effort toward the unionizing of our craft work in the area referred to and to take whatever steps would be found necessary, including membership issuance to the qualified non-Union Asbestos Workers in the area in which they reside.

The question of certain of our employers violating their agreement with the local unions by not abiding by that portion of their agreement which provides for the preparation, as well as, distribution and application, at the job site was discussed and the Officers were instructed to call this to the attention of all of the affiliated local unions and to advise that the General Office is currently in a position to supply International Union Labels for use on any of our craft work performed away from the job site by our membership for the purpose of identification

The Board members were acquainted with several instances where employers, signatory to the local union Joint Trade Agreement, have been found to sublet portions of the insulation work included in their contract to others with the result that the labor in connection therewith was not performed by employees represented by our local unions which, of course, constituted a violation of the Agreement through mis-assignment of the work and all local unions are instructed to take necessary and appropriate action to deal with any repetition of the practice.

The Board gave due consideration to the listing of wages and fringes currently appearing in all Journal publications and in view of complicated listings due to the various forms and t of fringes, further complicated by the two or th e year agreements with changes every year or in some instances every six months, it was agreed that in future Journal issues, only the total cost item per hour, which would not include transportation and board allowance, would be listed.

The Board considered several hardship cases in various local unions where due to unemployment, the membership, including officers, found it necessary to accept employment outside the territory of their home local on a temporary basis and the question of the officers retaining their position and, or eligibility for nomination at subsequent elections was involved. After due consideration it was voted that members of a local, including the officers who, under the above circumstances accept temporary employment due to lack of work in their home territory, will not be forced to resign their office or lose their eligibility to be a candidate in subsequent elections, with the maximum of three months being agreed upon as the period of time upon which the temporary dispensation would prevail.

The question of restoration of local autonomy to Local No. 93, Philadelphia, Pa. Navy Yard was discussed and on recommendation of Vice President Andrew Haas, as a result of the assurance from the members of Local No. 93 that they would conduct the affairs of the local in accordance with the International Constitution and By-Laws if their autonomy was restored, the Board voted to restore the autonomy to Local No. 93 and Vice President Haas was instructed to proceed with the details in connection therewith.

With no further business before the Board, adjournment was declared at 4 p.m. on Friday, August 11, 1961.

Respectfully submitted,
ALBERT E. HUTCHINSON
General Secretary-Treasurer

President C. W. Sickles, together with Secretary Elmer Walker and President A. J. Hayes of the International Association of Machinists in Conference with Nelson Cruickshank, Director of A.F.L.-C.I.O. Department of Social Security, during recent 1961 AFL-CIO General Board Meeting in New York City.

Congress Asked to Protect People Against Useless Drugs

The Administration has urged Congress to give the American people the same protection against useless drugs that "we have been giving hogs, sheep and cattle."

Health, Education & Welfare Sec. Abraham A. Ribicoff told the Senate Anti-trust subcommittee that under present law "worthless drugs may remain on the market for months or years until the government can get evidence to sustain a court action against them."

Ribicoff strongly endorsed a bill by Subcommittee Chairman Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.) which would require drug manufacturers to produce evidence that new drugs live up to their claims before they can be approved for general use. He said the Food & Drug Administration now can keep a drug off the market only if it is actually harmful.

Since 1913, he said, the Government has prohibited the marketing of "worthless" medications for use on domestic animals. Thus, he declared, "we must say to the American people: a hog is protected against worthless drugs, but you are [illegible]"

Another provision of the bill, aimed at encouraging competition by requiring identical drugs to be marketed under a single common or generic name, was strongly endorsed by the head of the Justice Department's anti-trust division, Assistant Atty. Gen. Lee Loevinger.

Loevinger said the "proprietary names" which drug manufacturers use "serve more to confuse the physician than to assist him."

DECISION

Appeal of Walter H. Johansen, Reg. No. 7400, Local No. [illegible], Boston, Mass., against trial action and penalty. Referred to President Sickles for investigation and decision. (Business Agent Halvor Arntzen appeared before the Board in connection with the case.) President Sickles assigned Organizer John W. [illegible] to hold a hearing with both the defendant and the local representatives present. After hearing and report to President Sickles the appeal is sustained. Penalty dismissed.

NOTICE OF GENERAL EXECUTIVE BOARD MEETING

This is to officially notify the officers and membership of our International Association that the next regular meeting of the General Executive Board will be held at the General Office, 505 Machinists Building, 1300 Connecticut Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C. beginning Monday, March 5, 1962.

The session will open Monday morning, March 5 at 10 a.m. and will continue until such time as all official business has been considered and acted upon.

All communications in re: Charges, Appeals Decisions, etc., should be in the hands of Secretary Hutchinson at the General Office not later than Friday, March 2, 1962.

ALBERT E. HUTCHINSON
General Secretary-Treasurer

IMPORTANT NOTICE

You will note from the notice above that our General Executive Board will convene on the first Monday in March, 1962, rather than the second to coincide with the calling of the Eighth Annual National Legislative Conference by the Building and Construction Trades Department. Experience of the last several years has shown that a large number of our local unions send representatives to these Legislative Conferences and the holding of our Executive Board meeting during the same week will give our representatives an opportunity to take up any problems they may have with not only the General Office but with the Vice President of their region or the full Board as the subject matter warrants. We have reserved a block of rooms at the Willard Hotel and would suggest that you contact the General Office for reservations, advising accommodations, required date and approximate hour of arrival. This request must be received prior to February 28, 1962.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

The Federal Post Office Department requires extra postal charges when they notify the General Office of any change in address of members on the JOURNAL mailing list

Dear Sir and Brother:

The Asbestos Workers Local No. 31, Providence, R. I., celebrated its 50th Anniversary with a Dinner-Dance at the Admiral Inn on September 23rd. Honored guests present were International Organizer and Mrs. John W. Hoff; Business Agent Local No. 6 and Mrs. Herbert Anderson; Mr. Joseph Flynn, Business Agent Local No. 12, New York City; Business Agent Local No. 33 and Mrs. Leslie A. Johnson and Mr. George Morth, Business Agent Local No. 123.

Seated at the head table were the officers of the local and their wives. An unusual centerpiece of flowers with a trowel in the center decorated the head table. All of the women attending were given corsages and the men received gold jackknives with attached key chain inscribed "Asbestos Workers Local No. 31, 1910-1960."

The program was opened with a moment of silence after the names of all the deceased members of Local No. 31 were read. An address of welcome was given by the President and Business Agent of the Local and also by James Cole, Chairman of the affair. Brother John W. Hoff spoke to the gathering.

Dancing followed the dinner and a most enjoyable evening was had by those in attendance.

Fraternally yours,

other operating personnel;

"30.0% by bank cashiers;

"12.7% by bank managers;

"8.6% by bank presidents;

"6.0% by bank vice presidents."

The arithmetic says that in the year ending June 30, 1960, nearly one-third of the 1,771 banks suffering internal frauds were victimized by their own cashiers, 531 of them, and the cashier of a smaller bank is the trusted chief who runs the institution.

The arithmetic says that during this period approximately 152 bank presidents embezzled or stole from their own banks.

Mr. Miller told the Arkansas and Ohio bankers that it is "not my purpose to frighten you." He also told Ohio bankers that if the "averages" stood up, "about 75 Ohio banks (29 Arkansas banks) will report violations to the FBI this year."

"It is not beyond the realm of reality," said Mr. Miller in his address, "to say that while some of you are sitting here listening to me an embezzlement can be taking place in your bank back home."

We think the public should know that an obscure clause in the Landrum-Griffin Act imposed very costly bonding expenses upon unions that are unjustified by experience.

The AFL-CIO believes that there is no justification for the continued imposition of exceptionally strict and expensive bonding requirements for trade union officers and employees—bonding prices that must be paid, inevitably from the union assets that could be used to promote the well-being of the union members.

The AFL-CIO believes it is entitled, on its record, to the ordinary commercial blanket bond acceptable under the law and under common practice for trustees and employees with a fiduciary responsibility in all other financial institutions.

If unions were allowed to develop in cooperation with the surety companies a schedule of rates for commercial blanket fidelity bonds—exactly the same kind of fidelity bonds now written for banks and other financial institutions—they could obtain greater coverage for a lesser rate, and the assets of the trade union movement would be conserved as they should be for the benefit of the members.

The normal commercial blanket bond is all that is needed for the protection of union monies—and we look forward to the day when the fine record of our officers in handling, investing and recording union finances is recognized in law.

Cancer Foundation Aims Outlined

The Eleanor Roosevelt Cancer Foundation is a national voluntary health organization devoted primarily to cancer research. It is the only organization in the country to which Mrs. Roosevelt has given the use of her name. She did so because of the distinctive contribution it makes in the fight against cancer. Its program is not duplicated by any other organization.

The twofold program of the foundation provides for:

1. Building new cancer research facilities at hospitals and medical schools in various parts of the country. These laboratories and institutes will be named for Eleanor Roosevelt.

2. Sponsoring an international fellowship program for cancer research and the training of advanced cancer research scientists both in this country and abroad.

Gen. Omar N. Bradley is chairman of the foundation's Board of Governors. Rep. James Roosevelt (D-Calif.) is president. Sidney Glazier is national executive director.

The Scientific Advisory Board of the foundation is headed by Dr. John R. Heller, president of the Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center, former director of the National Cancer Institute.

In order to extend its program and to cutdown on multiple appeals to the public the Eleanor Roosevelt Cancer Foundation has become affiliated with the American Cancer Society.

The following grants have already been authorized by the Eleanor Roosevelt Cancer Foundation:

1. To the Jefferson Medical Center in Philadelphia for an Eleanor Roosevelt cancer research facility.

2. To the University of Utah Medical School for building a cancer research facility.

3. To the American Medical Center at Denver for cancer research and the care of cancer patients.

4. To the University of Colorado Medical Center for establishing an Eleanor Roosevelt Institute for Cancer Research.

5. To the International Union Against Cancer for an international fellowship program to spur advanced cancer research and training.

WORLD HEALTH AWARD to Gen. Omar N. Bradley (center), board chairman of the Eleanor Roosevelt Cancer Foundation, draws approving smiles from President Kennedy and Mrs. Roosevelt.*

Delegate J. V. Baker, Local No. 114, reported a membership of 38. Work at the present time is good and future prospects also good.

At this time Conference President Brooks Baker introduced Brother Arnold Buzzard and Brother Ben Green, members of the host local, who had been requested by the Business Agent to appear in order that they might report their experiences in connection with an issue currently under investigation. The question arose regarding the advisability of dispensing with the next regular scheduled meeting of the Southwest States Conference to be held in March, 1962 and that the Fall, 1962, scheduled conference meeting be held in Atlantic City the weekend preceding the 20th Convention of our International. President Baker appointed a committee to meet during the noon recess and report back to the afternoon session with a recommendation.

General President C. W. Sickles addressed the delegates on various trade problems. He cited several instances whereby our Insulation Contractors were misassigning insulation work to other crafts or even failing to bid on our craft work on many projects.

He cautioned all locals concerning having their newly negotiated agreements check for legality by our General Office before the final signing and acceptance. President Sickles informed the delegates that there would be no work stoppage on missile bases or sites due to the expiration of agreements. These jobs would continue on a retroactive basis until an agreement was reached.

The Audit and Finance Committee reported examining the Conference books and finding everything in order. The committee also recommended that each local sending delegates to the meeting be taxed $20.00. This fee will be used to help the host local defray some of the expenses connected with the meeting. This recommendation was laid over for the afternoon session.

Meeting recessed for lunch.

The Conference reconvened and delegates were advised to direct any questions to President Sickles for clarification.

One delegate asked if "stress welding" could be claimed by our craft since some jobs have quite a bit of this type of work. President Sickles stated that insulation applied for this type of work is of a temporary nature and that we do not claim same.

On the question concerning which craft has jurisdiction over removing insulation from vessels and piping, President Sickles advised that we do not claim the removal of insulation which is to be destroyed; but where the insulation is being salvaged for reuse, then our membership should do the removal of same.

On the question of members losing office because of traveling. President Sickles stated that where a local union has an unemployment problem, an officer could secure a traveling card and not lose his office up to a three month period. This same rule would apply to a candidate running for office and any meetings missed while on Traveler would not be charged against any candidate during the three month period.

One of the delegates asked President Sickles for a ruling on jurisdiction where sections of pipe covering with a plastic jacket were being used as a conveyor of air instead of metal ducts. The pipe covering is joined at each section with a metal sleeve and hangar. He states we would not claim this work since the prime function of this material constituted a duct to convey the air conditioning through the building.

President Sickles concluded by reminding all delegates to honor the 1957 Agreement with the Sheet Metal Workers and to insist that our membership carry out this Agreement. He also clarified the jurisdiction regarding our claim on Gilsulate, Vermiculite, Perlite, and similar materials for use in connection with underground installations.

Published by AsbestosClaims.Law
asbestosclaims.law/library/21502/18

The committee appointed during the morning session regarding dispensing with the Spring, 1962 conference meeting and holding the Fall, 1962, meeting in Atlantic City the weekend preceding the 20th International Convention reported back to the Conference and unanimously recommended the above action and the Conference adopted this recommendation. This action was based on the financial expedient and in an effort to be helpful to the affiliated local unions in sending delegates, one or more, to the Conference meeting in Atlantic City, due to the financial structure of this conference which does pay the round trip plane fare for one delegate from each affiliated local union to all conference meetings.

Conference President Baker delivered an interesting talk on the Conference Pension Plan advising that he expects a favorable Government ruling by the beginning of the new Year. He further stated that all local union delegates of the Southwest States, attending the International Convention in Atlantic City, would be invited to attend the Southwest States Conference meeting prior to the Convention.

A motion was made and seconded at this time to accept the Audit Committees recommendation concerning the $20.00 fee charged to each local sending delegates to the meeting. This fee would be given to the host local. Motion passed unanimously.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned at 3:30 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
GERALD W. O'BRIEN
Secretary

P.S. On behalf of the delegates and their wives, I wish to thank the officers, members and wives of Local No. 76 for a most enjoyable weekend. From the time of arriv the "red carpet" treatment was ever present. Our visit to Albuquerque will be long cherished and remembered by all. Many thanks.

A motion was made and seconded that the 1962 Fall meeting of the Conference be held in Atlantic City in conjunction with the Convention of the International Association.

President Sickles suggested that if any of the delegates had any problems that would be of interest to the other delegates present, to bring them up in the open meeting.

Several delegates stated that some of the National Constructors had refused to furnish a bond in conformity with a clause requiring the posting of a bond which had been included in their local agreement. President Sickles informed the delegates that this matter had been called to his attention and that the problem was being worked on, and not to do anything on the Local level for the time being.

It was also brought out that several contractors within the Conference area had acquired facing machines. This equipment is used to apply foil, vinyl and similar types of finish to the surface of insulation, and is being done in the shop or warehouse. The delegates were informed that this type of an operation was considered as preparation of material and should be done by Asbestos Workers.

In a talk following the discussion period President Sickles strongly recommended the words preparation and distribution be included in all future agreements.

He mentioned the Armaflex headache which seems to be national in scope saying that the U. A. will support our jurisdiction over the application of this material when brought to their attention, but thinks that the best solution to the problem was to obtain the cooperation of the pipefitters and plumbers at the local level. President Sickles informed the delegates of the uncooperative attitude of the Plasterers International on several jobs where plasterers were spraying insulation on work coming under our jurisdiction, by refusing to stop the plasterers from continuing to do our work.

He discussed the difficulty he is having with the Sheet Metal Workers International over interpretation of the agreement with that organization, particularly the part which concerns itself with the application of metal as a finish for insulation. A joint committee meeting has been arranged to adjust this controversy.

With the conclusion of President Sickles address, there being no further business, the meeting adjourned at 12:00 noon.

Respectfully submitted,
MALCOLM DETLEFS
Secretary

P. S. The delegates wish me to extend their thanks to Local 37 for a most enjoyable evening spent as guests of Local 37 at a Dinner-Dance which was held the same evening.

Following the reports of delegates a recess was declared by President Haas and the delegates were served a buffet luncheon by host Local No. 32.

On resuming the order of business International Vice President George Rider in his capacity as Financial Secretary-Treasurer on the Arrangements Committee for the 1962 Convention, gave the delegates a report on monies received to date. He advised that approximately 50% is on hand and urged the delegates to see to it that all assessments are remitted promptly as the Committee will have a meeting shortly to make all commitments for the Convention, at which time financial obligations will have to be met.

International Assistant William Howell was introduced and he thanked the delegates for inviting him to this meeting.

During the reports of the Delegates, General President Sickles and General Secretary Hutchinson gave advice and specific instructions whenever needed. President Sickles also spoke on the necessity of having an adequate supply of manpower to retain control of the work in the industry, citing an instance whereby the lack of manpower resulted in a change being made in job specifications which resulted in our craft losing jurisdiction of the work involved. He also spoke briefly on the latest effort being made to resolve the issue with the Sheet Metal Worker. Secretary Hutchinson also spoke on the Sheet Metal problem and he advised that they now have Production Worker Locals in that craft who perform the fabrication of duct work in the shop in two or three cities.

The Secretary then gave a report on problems that he is having in compiling the monthly report due to negligence on the part of business agents in the submission of their reports at the proper time. After considerable discussion a motion was made and unanimously adopted that the secretary call all tardy business agents when the reports are correlated for submission to all locals.

After discussion the Winter meeting of the Conference was cancelled and the next meeting will be held on Saturday, April 7, 1962 at the General Office, Washington, D. C. at 10:00 a.m.

With all business transacted adjournment was voted at 2:45 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
STEPHEN J. KOPP
Secretary

To Arrangements Chairman McConnell, his committee, officers and membership of Local No. 32—Congratulations and may you be fortunate in having continued good health and prosperity for the next fifty years.
